L. Troy Kerr, 69, of Port Arthur, died Friday, July 7, 2017, at Lake Arthur Place Nursing and Rehabilitation in Port Arthur. He was born October 12, 1947, to Ruby Mae Owens Kerr and Willie Julius Kerr, Sr. in Garrison, Texas. Troy was raised in both Garrison and Lufkin, Texas and had been a resident of Port Neches since the early 70's, after he was married.

Troy enjoyed operating Citizens Band (CB) Radios; shade tree auto mechanic work; and raising dogs, pigeons, and doves. He also served his communities with nearly 40 years of service in the grocery industry, the last 12 of which were at HEB Pantry in Groves. Troy would always lend a helping hand to his family. He was there for his daughters and was overjoyed when he became a Papa. He will be remembered as a hardworking, loving, surviving miracle.

Survivors include his daughters, Kimberly Philen and her husband, Michael, of Bridge City and Alicia Montondon and her husband, Michael, of Port Neches; grandchildren, Kerrah Cappel of Bridge City, Alexis and Gavin Montondon of Port Neches; sister, Linda Fenley of Spring; and eighteen nieces/nephews, great nieces/nephews, and great-great nieces/nephews.

Troy is preceded in death by his parents, Willie J. and Ruby Kerr; brothers, W.J. Kerr, Jr. and W. Langston Kerr; and his granddaughter, Kelcee' Cyerrah Cappel.
