

Willie Faye "Pat" Kinney

November 6, 1938 - October 26, 2018

“Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal.”

Willie Faye "Pat" Kinney, 79, of Nederland, died Friday, October 26, 2018 at Harbor Hospice, Beaumont. She was born November 6, 1938, in Seagoville, to Willie Tucker and Lehman Thomas Cox, Sr.

Pat had a profound sense of humor. She enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren, playing Bingo and Booray, and loved spending time outdoors when she was able to.

Survivors include her daughters, Carrie Boudreaux and her husband, Danny Hall and Tracie Marie Mills and her husband, Paul Owsley, all of Nederland; Cheryl Simon and her husband, Brian, of Port Acres; Charlene Nicole Bailey and her husband, Cody, of DeRidder, Louisiana; six grandchildren, Daniel, Misti, Felicia, Ashley, Christian, and Leamon; and thirteen great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Charles Ulyssies Kinney; six brothers; and five sisters.

God's Will Is Best

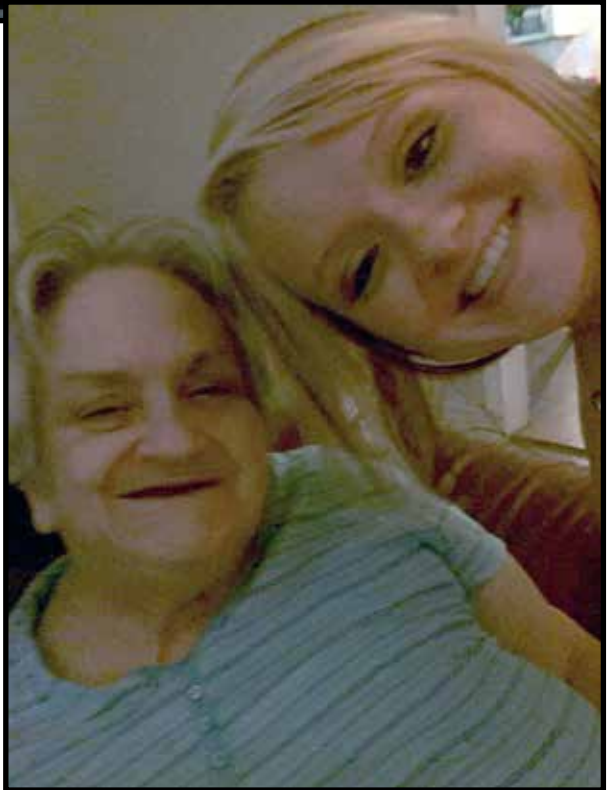

God Saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put His arm around you
And whispered, "Come with me."
With tear filled eyes we watched
As you suffered and faded away,
Although we loved you deeply,
We could not ask you to stay.
A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands now rest,
Though our hearts are broken,
God's will is always best.

A Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today;
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me
As much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.
