Sermon

Psalm 23

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name’s sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

“Amazing Grace”

Janece Burris Lankford, 81, of Beaumont, formerly of Lufkin, died Wednesday, October 24, 2018, at Harbor Hospice, Beaumont. She was born on October 10, 1937, in Lufkin, to Evelyn Worthy Burris Gibson and Jesse Doyle Burris.

Janece dearly loved her family and friends. She enjoyed cooking and feeding everyone, you never left her house hungry. She loved making jewelry and baking cakes, and she never met a stranger!

Survivors include her daughters, Melinda Flanagan and her husband, Jon; Tina Vogel and her husband, Jim; grandkids, Justin Flanagan, Nic Flanagan, and Lacy Scott and her husband, Wes; great-grandkids, Kayla and Brendon Flanagan; sisters-in-law, Laura Burris and Sue Harris; brother-in-law, Jay Renkin; numerous nieces and nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews; and her dear companion, James “Buddy” Jones.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband of fifty-six years, Billy A. Lankford; sisters, Geraldine Renkin and JoAnne Adams; and brother, Jerry Burris.

I will thank the Lord with all my heart; I will declare all your wonderful works. I will rejoice and boast about you; I will sing about your name, Most High.

- Psalm 9:1-2
