Mae Alice Lavespere, 86, of Lumberton, died Friday, February 9, 2018, at Baptist Hospitals of Southeast Texas, Beaumont. She was born on January 28, 1932, in Natchitoches, Louisiana, to Margie Shirley and Willie Elvin Behan.

Survivors include her children, Jimmy Lavespere and his wife, Melissa, of Port Neches and Sandra West of Sour Lake; sister-in-law, Charlyn Behan; grandchildren, Anthony Arabie of Sour Lake; Cassie Arabie and significant other, Hank Richard, of Orange; James Lavespere and his wife, Jessica; Jeremy Lavespere and his wife, Tiffany; and Megan Trahan and her husband, Donald, all of Port Neches; great-grandchildren, James Arabie, David Swaim, Kyle Lavespere, Timothy Lavespere, Audrey Lavespere, and Evangeline Trahan; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Mae is preceded in death by her parents; her husband of forty-seven years, James Henry Lavespere; brothers, Wayne Behan and Bill Behan; and sisters, Elvie Stephens, Jean Elliott, and Fern Johnson.

*God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed those loving eyes,
And whispered, "Peace Be Thine!"
The weary hours and the days of pain,
The sleepless nights are passed.
The ever-patient, worn-out frame,
Has found sweet rest at last.
God saw that you were getting weary,
So He did what He knew best.
He came and stood beside you,
And whispered, "Come my child and rest!"
You bid your family a last farewell,
Yet some no chance to say goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.*
