God saw him getting tired, and a cure was not to be So He put his arms around him and whispered, "Come to Me."

With tearful eyes
we watched him suffer, and saw him slowly fade away.
Although we loved him dearly,
we could not make him stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
hard working hands put to rest,
God broke our hearts
to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Obituary

Tevis Anthony Lincoln "Honey" beloved husband, father, brother, son-in-law, godfather, uncle, and friend, transitioned from labor to reward on Saturday, May 12, 2018, at Christus Hospital-St. Elizabeth, Beaumont.

Tevis was born on August 26, 1948, to the late Edward and Anna Martin Tevis Lincoln in Opelousas, Louisiana, before moving to Orange, Texas. Tevis who was affectionally known by family and friends as "Link" was a graduate of M.B. North High School Class of 1967. He served in the United States Army before meeting the love of his life in 1977. Link married Barbara Rhines on November 23, 1977 and a family united; Nicole and Lana.

Link dedicated thirty-five years to Union Pacific Railroad as a conductor. Spending time with his family gave him great pride and joy. It was never a dull moment from camping trips on the beach and late-night trips to San Antonio. He loved riding his motorcycle, traveling, fishing, and playing ping pong. Link made a host of friends during countless activities such as being a member of the Gold Wing Bike Club, Brother Hood Club, and the (DAV) American Legion.

Link is preceded in death by his parents, Edward and Anna Martin Lincoln; brother, Thurman; and his mother-in-law, Carolyn Rhines.

He leaves to cherish his legacy and memory his wife of forty-one years, Barbara Lincoln; daughters, Nicole (David) Johnson and Lana (Reginald) Wilridge; father-in-law, Robert Rhines; sisters, Edwina (Billy) Lewis, Hilda Roberts, and Phyllis Lincoln; in-laws, Shirley and Berry Smith and their kids, Phyllis, Loretta, and Charles; grandkids, Jarrett (Tré), Keith, Bry'an, Bryanunique (Nene), Bryan, Jr., Reginald, Jr., and Layla; nine great-grandkids; two god-daughters; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
