

Stanley Maddox

August 14, 1942 - October 20, 2017

Clifford Stanley Maddox, Sr., 75, of Beaumont, died Friday, October 20, 2017, at Kindred Hospital The Greater Heights, Houston, Texas. He was born on August 14, 1942, in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, to Beatrice Miller and James Wyman Maddox, and had been a longtime resident of Beaumont. He retired with GCR Bickley Tire Company; most recently he was working part-time at Vidor Glass. Stanley enjoyed NASCAR, Alabama football, playing golf, and solitaire on the computer. He had made several missionary trips to Mexico to help build orphanages.

Stanley is survived by his special lady friend, Arlene Christiansen; daughters, Angel Heartfield and Stephanie Ford; step-mother, Verlie Maddox; step-brother, Gary Woods and his wife, Paulette; grandsons, Alex Heartfield and wife Taylor, and Austin Treptow; granddaughters, Sidney Maddox and Emma Maddox.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Beatrice Miller and James Maddox; and sons, Cliff Maddox, Jr. and Kevin Maddox.

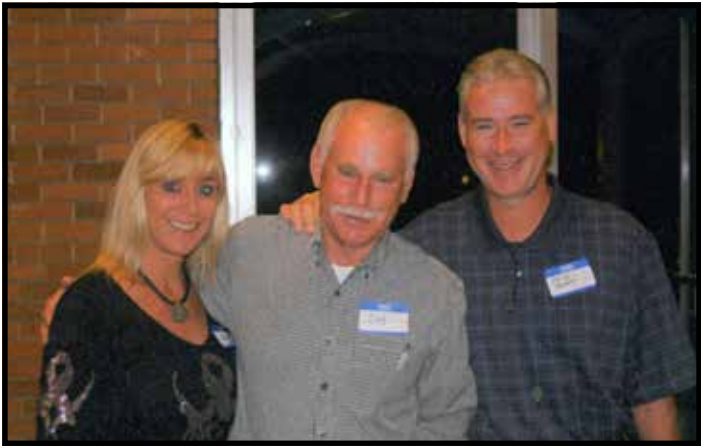

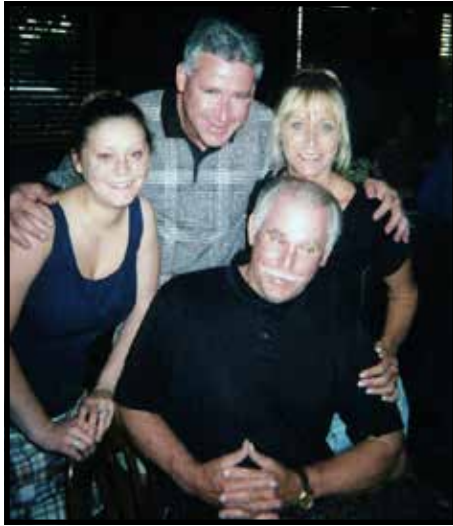

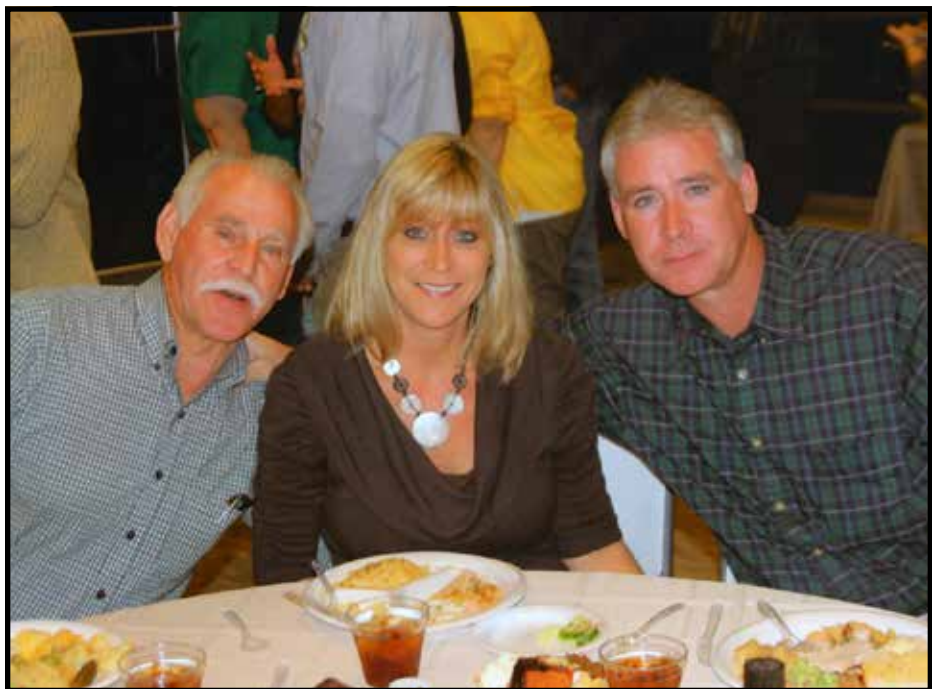

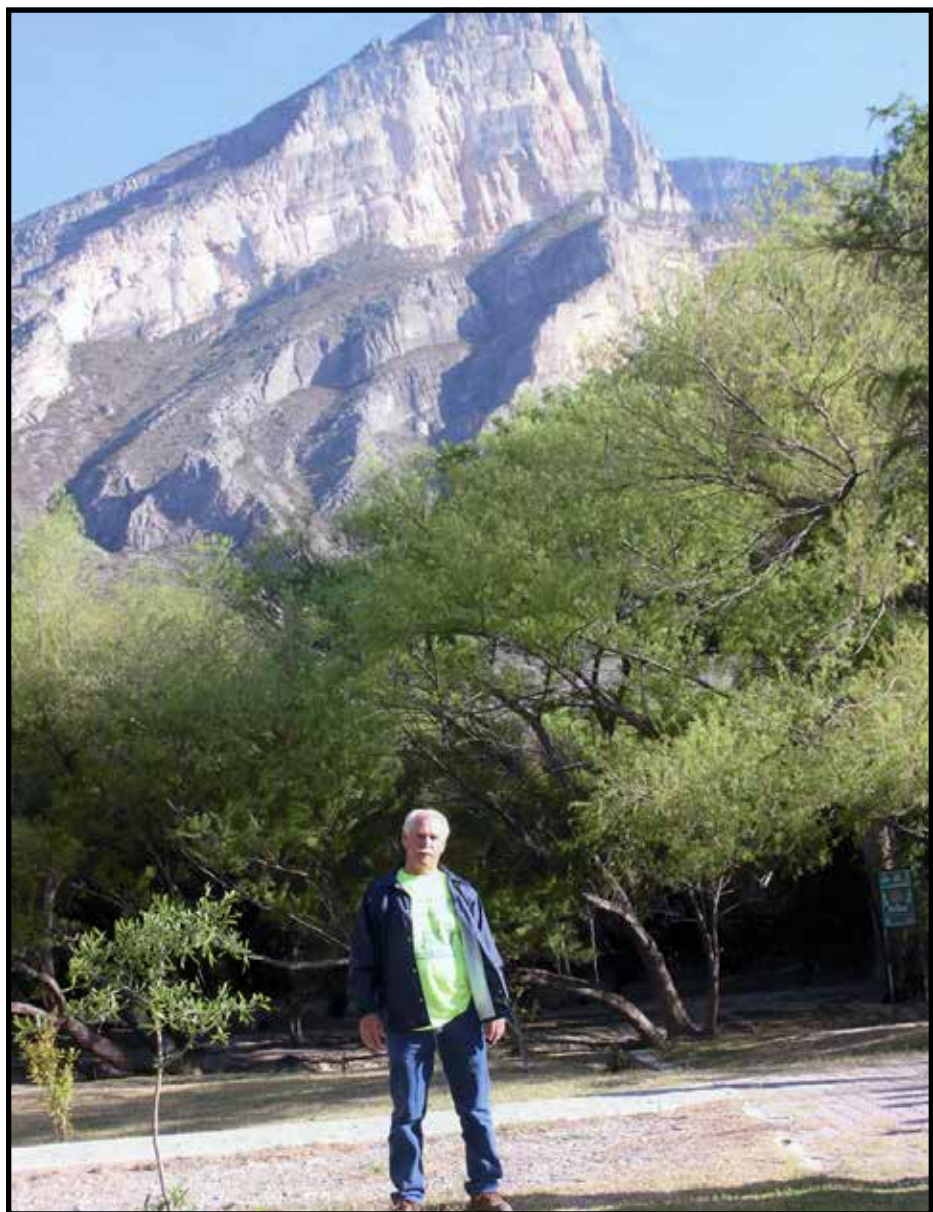

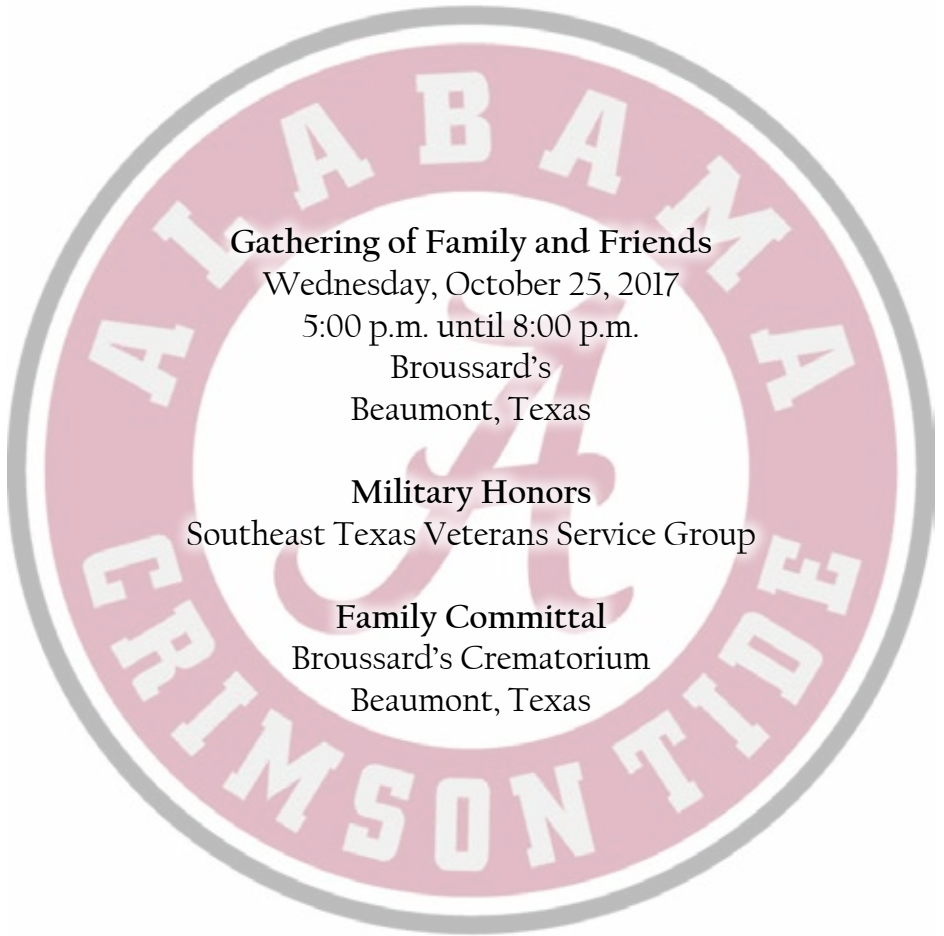

Gathering of Family and Friends

Wednesday, October 25, 2017

5:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m.

Broussard's
Beaumont, Texas

Military Honors

Southeast Texas Veterans Service Group

Family Committal

Broussard's Crematorium
Beaumont, Texas

Broussard's
Established 1889

Please sign Mr. Maddox's guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com