

*“And God shall wipe away all the tears from their eyes;
and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying,
neither shall there be any more pain:
for the former things are passed away.”
Revelation 21:4*

James “Kemo” Lee McClendon, 52, of Fannett, died Wednesday, October 30, 2019. He was born on September 6, 1967, in Norman, Oklahoma, to Betty Lou Burrows and Bobby Joe McClendon. He was a sales representative in the industrial valve and fitting industry, working for Sunbelt Supply.

Kemo enjoyed Hamshire-Fannett football, he never missed a game in or out of town since he graduated from high school. He enjoyed his yard work; he was known as “the grass king”. Kemo liked to travel and woodwork. He was always the life of the party, and he was a never-ending jokester. Kemo enjoyed family gatherings, but most of all he loved his family.

He is survived by his wife, Monica McClendon; daughter, Erin Leigh McClendon; sons, Hayden Mitchell McClendon and Logan Ross McClendon; and sister, Carrie Sanders and her husband, Jon, all of Fannett; brothers, Gary “Scooter” McClendon and his wife, Charlotte, of Arlington and Joe Pat McClendon and his wife, Crispen, of Hemphill; sister, Barbara Kintner and her husband, Carl, of Fannett; numerous nieces and nephews; mother and father-in-law, Joyce and Jacob Cialona; and brother and sister-in-law, Jason and Robbi LeLeaux, all of Fannett.

Kemo is preceded in death by his parents, Betty and Bobby McClendon.

– You only live once

*“For everything there is a season...
a time to be born, and a time to die..
a time to heal... a time to break down, and a time to build up...
a time to weep, and a time to laugh...
a time to mourn, and a time to dance.”
Ecclesiastes 3: 1-4*
