

Estha Gayle McClusky
June 13, 1956 - October 2, 2018

Celebrating the Life of
Estha Gayle McClusky
Broussard's Chapel
Silsbee, Texas
Saturday, October 6, 2018 12:00 p.m.

All My Hope
by David Crowder

Scripture, Eulogy, and Opening Prayer
Reverend Harland Strother

I Will Rise
by Chris Tomlin

Redeemer
by Nicole C. Mullen

Message of Comfort
Reverend David Cross

Closing Prayer

“My Hope is built on nothing less than Jesus Blood and Righteousness”

Above all, a servant and follower of Jesus Christ, her life's work was committed to furthering the Kingdom of God. She was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother (Lolly), aunt, and friend. Gayle obeyed the call to ministry and dedicated her life to it. She faithfully served alongside Kevin, as an equal partner, helper, comforter, voice of reason and supporter. The role of a pastor's wife is one of the upmost regards in the eyes of The Lord and Gayle fulfilled that role. A precious wife to Kevin, she showed unconditional love, patience, and forgiveness. She was also a wonderful mother to her two boys, Matt and Andrew; raising them under the admonition of The Lord and modeling what they should look for in a wife. She also became a mother-in-law to two beautiful daughters-in-law, Lynnsey and Brittany, loving them as if they were her own. One of her greatest joys was becoming Lolly, a grandmother to Kenedy. She was also an aunt to many nieces and nephews whom she loved dearly and a loyal friend to all.

One of Gayle's greatest qualities was her desire to teach. It truly was a gift from God, a gift of The Holy Spirit. From mission trips, vacation bible school, and Sunday school, she was willing to teach. As well as being a talented pianist, she served and used her gift to bring glory to The Lord, at whichever church her and Kevin were a part of. Along with serving in the church, Gayle was a public school teacher for nineteen years. She poured her heart and soul into her teaching. Touching and changing countless lives, leaving her mark on the hearts of her students and peers. All who knew Gayle saw Jesus; the love of Jesus radiated from her. She faithfully, without wavering, served The Lord, a servant's heart abounded in her. On October 2, 2018, at 12:20 a.m., she came face to face with her Redeemer, hearing the words, “Well done my good and faithful servant, enter into your rest.”

“I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on the Day, and not to me only but to all who have loved His appearing.”

2 Timothy 4:7-8

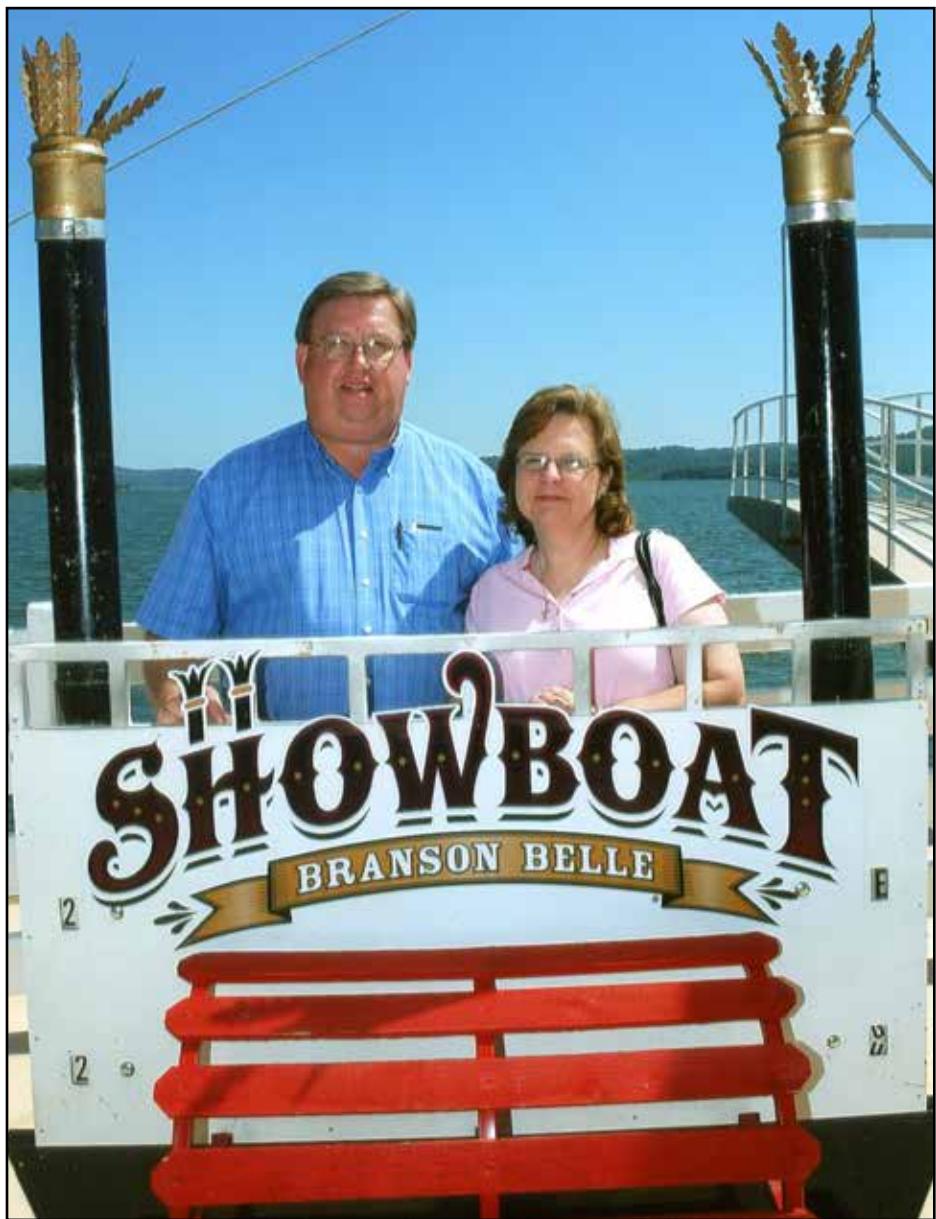

Pallbearers

Brian Adams
Rick Goldin
Lee Soileau
Josh Strother
Jerry Tatom
Nick Toparcean

Honorary Pallbearers

Eugene McClusky
Cecil Fortenberry
Foy Swinney
Dusty Dennis

Memorial Contributions

Memorial Hermann Foundation
929 Gessner Road, Suite 2650
Houston, Texas 77024

memorialhermann.org/donate | 713-242-4400

Broussards
Established 1889

Please sign Gayle's guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com