

Horace Dwayne McCormick
August 31, 1941 - January 24, 2020

Celebrating the Life of
Horace Dwayne McCormick

Saturday, February 1, 2020 10:00 a.m.

Broussard's Chapel

Beaumont, Texas

Pastor Butch Perkins

“Daddy’s Hands”

Obituary

“Grandpa (Tell Me ‘Bout The Good Old Days)”

Remembrances

“Go Rest High on That Mountain”

Message

“A Country Boy Can Survive”

Closing Prayer

Horace Dwayne McCormick, 78, of China, died Friday, January 24, 2020. He was born to Weenonah Young McCormick and Harice "E." McCormick, on August 31, 1941, in Evadale. Horace was a United States Navy veteran, and he was retired from Mobil Oil as a pipeline inspector. Horace loved the outdoors.

Survivors include his wife, Sue McCormick, of China; son, Bruce McCormick and his wife, Amber, of Mauriceville; daughters, Tina Rosas and her husband, Louis, of Los Angeles, California and Rayne Golden, of Van, Texas; sisters, Joyce Freeman, of Vidor and Pat Easterling and her husband, Edward, of Silsbee; brother, David Glen McCormick and his wife, Brenda, of Jena, Louisiana; sister-in-law, Jean McCormick, of Silsbee; grandchildren, Brian, Abbie, Derak, Mia, and Luis; best friend, Charlie Hines, of Beaumont; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his brothers, James Carroll McCormick and Harvey Leon "Bubba" McCormick.

Committal
Broussard's Crematorium
Beaumont, Texas

Military Honors
United States Navy

Broussard's
Established 1889

Please sign Mr. McCormick's guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com