Walk a Little Plainer Daddy

“Walk a little plainer, Daddy,” said a little boy so frail.

I’m following in your footsteps, and I don’t want to fail.

*Sometimes your steps are very plain.
sometimes they are hard to see.*

*So walk a little plainer, Daddy...for
you are leading me.*

*I know that once you walked this way
many years ago.*

And what you did along the way I’d really like to know.

For sometimes when I am tempted, I don’t know what to do.

*So walk a little plainer, Daddy...for
I must follow you.*

Now I am grown up, and you are still like I want to be.

*Now I have two sons who are following me.
And I would like to lead them right
and help them to be true.*

*So walk a little plainer, Daddy... for
we must follow you.*
