John “Scott” Mccraw, 72, of Lumberton, died Sunday, October 14, 2018, at Baptist Hospitals of Southeast Texas, Beaumont. He was born on December 12, 1945, to Evelyn Sapp McCraw and Cameron McCraw, in Beaumont.

Scott had a passion for working in the yard. He believed it was God’s garden and he just got to take care of some of it. Family and friends could always find him out in the yard, planning out his next design for a special tree or shrub. He wanted “Jojo” to have flowers all year round!

Survivors include his wife, Jo Lynne McCraw; sons, Brian McCraw and his wife, Lisa, of San Marcos; and Jay McCraw and his wife, Alison, of North Carolina; sisters, Sherry Broussard and her husband, Jim, of Beaumont; and Randa Carrington, of Moss Hill; and grandchildren, Kelsey McCraw, Brett McCraw, and Reagan McCraw.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Cameron McCraw and Evelyn Savoy.

"The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof" It speaks of His greatness, it sings of His love, and each day at dawning I lift my heart my heart high and raise my eyes to the infinite sky... I watch the night vanish as a new day is born, and I hear the birds sing on the wings of the morn, I see the dew glisten in the crystal like splendor While God, with a touch that is gentle and tender, Wraps up the night and softly tucks it away And hangs out the sun to herald a new day, A day yet unblemished by what's gone before, A chance to begin and start over once more, And all I need do is to silently pray - God, help me and guide me and go with me today.

- Helen Steiner Rice

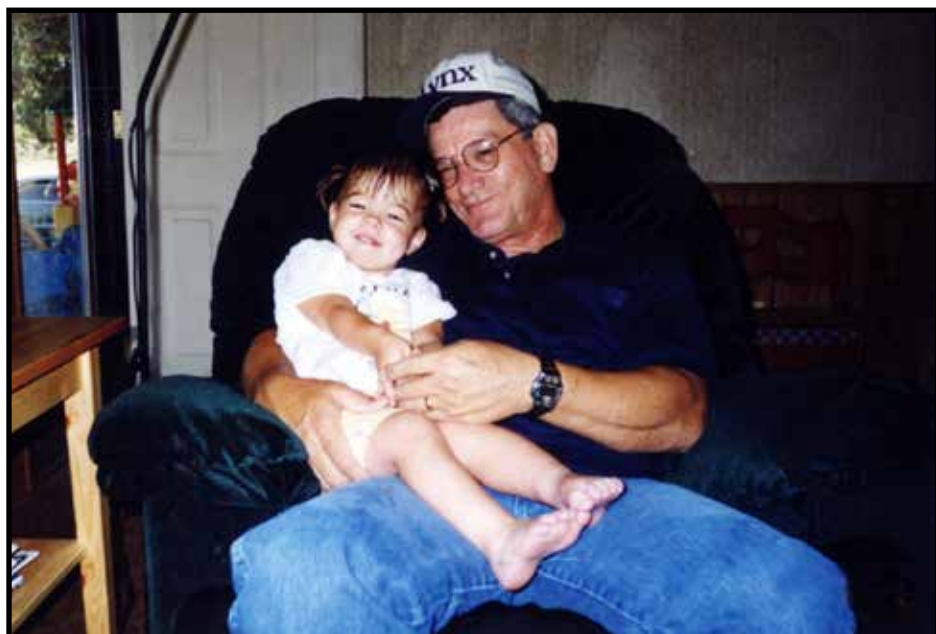

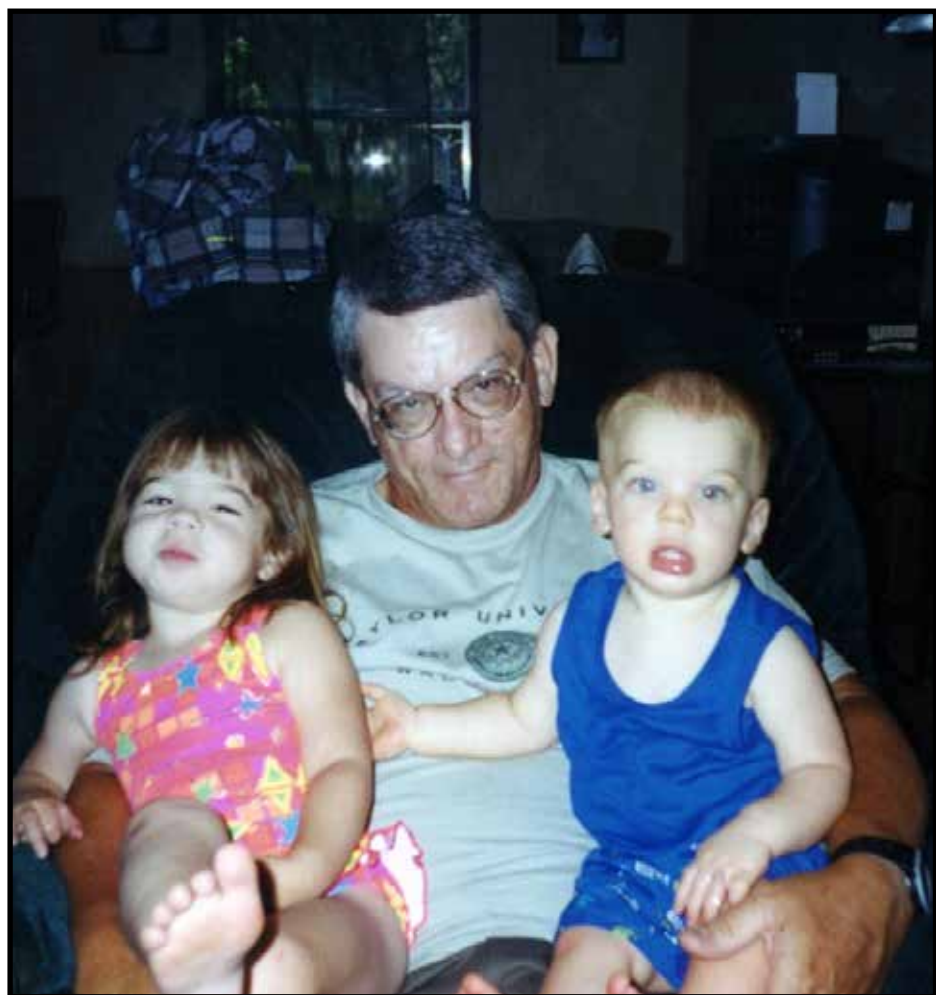

“And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither, and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.”

Psalm 1:3
