Dollie Nora McMakin, 68, of Nederland, passed away Thursday, April 11, 2019, at Magnolia Manor in Groves. She was born October 15, 1950, in Port Arthur, to Dena Myrtle Kyle and Hosey Gaston McMakin.

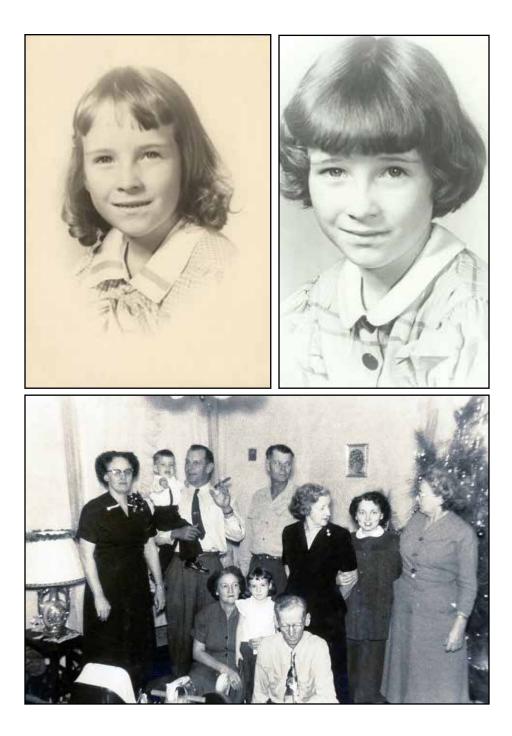

Dollie was saved by grace through her faith in Jesus Christ at the age of nine, staying active in her church as long as her health permitted. Being involved in many church activities, she especially cherished her time as counselor at the Baptist Encampment in Glorieta, New Mexico. She attended Stephen F. Austin State University for her B.A. in sociology and attended Lamar University, earning her Masters in education for guidance and counseling. Most of her career was spent at the Beaumont State Center/ Spindletop MHMR. Dollie will be remembered for her kind and generous spirit, her love and true friendship, being prayerful for other's needs, and her deep satisfaction of time with family. She impacted all our lives and will truly be missed.

She is survived by her cousins, Christine Jensen Murphy, Frank Dombrosky, Orville Dombrosky, and Troy Dombrosky. She is also survived by her life-long friends, Gail Work, Debbie Felder, and Connie Claus. She was preceded in death by her parents.

The family thanks all those in her life that made her life so special and those who cared for and loved her at Magnolia Manor.
