Martha Jean McNulty, 87, of Winnie, died Thursday, September 07, 2017. She was born March 27, 1930, in Union, Mississippi, to Annie Bee Williamson Matthews and Perry Matthews.

Survived by son, Fred McNulty, of Clark; and daughter, Laurie Ducey, of Kingwood.

She was preceded in death by parents; her husband of fifty-one years, Thomas “Mac” McNulty; sister, Beth Cleveland; daughter-in-law, Cindy McNulty; son-in-law, Jim Ducey; other family members; and friends.

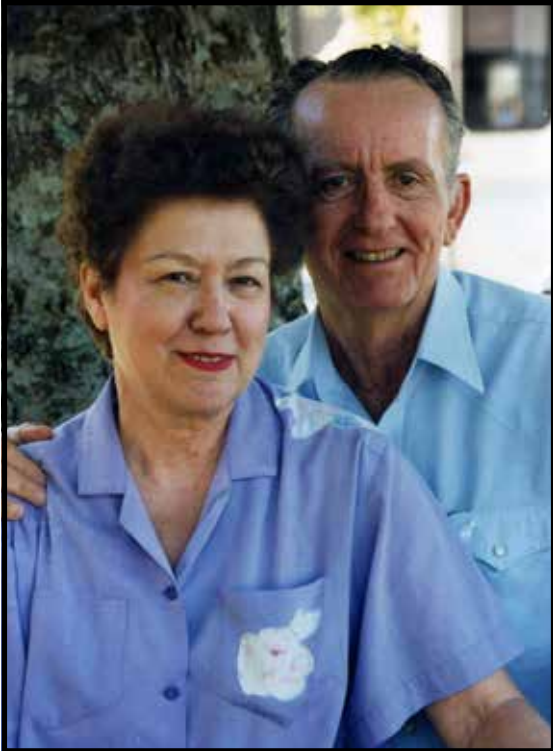

Jean met and married her husband, Mac, in Laurel, Mississippi, in 1949. With Mac’s work, they lived in twenty cities in four states, finally settling in Winnie, in 1954. Jean had many friends in Winnie and enjoyed gardening, quilting, reading and traveling with her friends. Before her debilitating stroke, she volunteered at the Arboretum Nursing Home, playing the piano and helping out with other activities. She also played the piano and organ at the First United Methodist Church, where she was a member. She was a very independent lady, until her stroke.

Fred and Laurie would like to sincerely thank Debbie Garner, who was so very helpful with Jean’s care at the Arboretum, as well as CNA Lupe Rodriguez.
