

Juliette LeBlanc Melancon
May 6, 1936 - July 15, 2019

Juliette LeBlanc Melancon,

83, of Nederland, died Monday, July 15, 2019, at Memorial Herman Texas Medical Center, Houston. She was born May 6, 1936, in Port Arthur, to Lillian Agnes Lauve LeBlanc and Etienne Louis LeBlanc.

Juliette was a devote wife and mother for sixty-two years. She was employed with St. Catherine School, Port Arthur, for over eighteen years where she covered many different positions. She enjoyed cooking; quilting; completing crossword puzzles; and was also an avid murder-mystery reader. She was known to have a green thumb because she could grow anything. She found great joy in spending time with her family at the beach and feeding the birds.

Survivors include her husband, Ronald Paul Melancon; children, Tammy Bell and her husband, Bryan, of Beaumont; Terri Melancon, of Nederland; Greg Melancon and his wife, Georgia, of Port Neches; and Gay Rowland and her husband, Charles, of Nederland; grandchildren, Raymond, Ryan, and Misti Melancon; Ian Bell; Joey and Adrian Martinez; Savannah Clark; Julia and Grant Rowland; and Victoria and Aaron Zepeda; thirteen great-grandchildren; brother, Paul LeBlanc and his wife, Gayle, of Seguin; sister-in-law, Priscilla LeBlanc, of Tomball; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Lillian and Etienne LeBlanc; and brother, Norbert LeBlanc.

“Lord Jesus, your love and mercy knows no bounds. Give me strength when I am weak, hope when I am discouraged, peace when I am troubled, consolation when I am sad, and understanding when I am perplexed. Make me an instrument of your love and peace to those who are troubled and without hope.”
