Closing Prayer

Alix Kinsey Neel, 18, of Sour Lake, went to be with the Lord on Sunday, September 9, 2018. She was born on February 6, 2000, in Beaumont, to Jason Neel and Beverly Neel.

Alix spent most of her life as a proud resident of Nome. Her basketball career started at the locally known, Nome Dome, through Twin County Little Dribblers. Alix always put everything she had into her love of the game. She was very competitive, and sometimes would even get a little frustrated on the court. Her teammates joke about Alix sneaking her leg out to trip other players when her frustrations heightened. Alix continued her basketball career at Henderson Middle School and then finally, at Hardin-Jefferson High School, Sour Lake.

Alix was an avid member of First Baptist Church of Nome as a child attending Vacation Bible School, Awanas, and youth group activities. She was baptized July 2009 in Nome. Alix's passion and love for Jesus grew abundantly over the past several years. This summer she spent her time as an intern at Encounter Church in Groves. Alix had a fire for God, and it was evident in her smile, and compassion. She recently even preached her first sermon. Her walk in Christ can be summed up in three words that were her favorite, "So Will I."

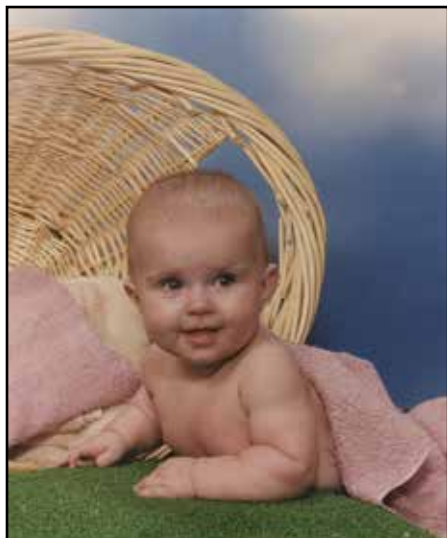

When asked about Alix, you heard the words: funny, beautiful, the best smile, competitive, Christian, loving, a friend to everyone, sugar lover (except for things with red dye), messy, jokester, dancer, singer, and Child of God.

Alix loved to dance, a passion and talent she inherited from her father. She had a beautiful voice. One who's vibrato reminded of us of the late Janis Joplin. She provided entertainment to family and friends at one of her favorite places, Sam Rayburn Lake. She loved everyone she met, but most of all her family. Her love for her parents and sisters came before all else. She was the epitome of a daddy's girl. From an outsider looking in you could always see the bond between Alix and her father, Jason. Her lifelong best friends were her sisters, Jacie and Carly. Alix loved her family, they were her greatest treasure.

Alix is survived by her father, Jason Neel; mother, Beverly Neel; sisters, Kirstey Neel, Jacie Neel, and Carly Neel; grandparents, Sharon and Joe Broussard; grandfather, Curtis Blanchard; aunts and uncles, Jennifer Hartman and her husband, Chris; Alisa Burger; Hanna Leger and her husband, Brad; Haley Blanchard; and Blake Blanchard and his wife, Beth; cousins, Tyner, Ellea, Colton, Liam, Cole, Ethan, Bailey, and Adalyn Leah; and numerous friends who were like family.

She is preceded in death by her grandmother, Rebecca Blanchard (Gammie).
