Nancy Sue Norman,

76, of Vidor, died Saturday, November 9, 2019, at M.D. Anderson Cancer Center, Houston. She was born on October 12, 1943, in Houston, Texas.

After a 13-year battle with cancer, Nancy gained her angel wings. We knew she would as she was an angel on earth to all that knew her. Her sweet soul touched all who met her and endeared her to them immediately. She was Nanny not only to her grandchildren but to their friends and families as well. Most “framily” referred to her as Aunt Nancy. With raising 3 boys, her home always held the neighborhood kids and she treated them as her own, with a few receiving the soap in the mouth treatment!

Never one to sit still, Nancy was always on the go. If there was a get together, you could count her being there and bringing deviled eggs or broccoli and rice casserole. Friday nights at Nancy’s house became a ritual for all friends, new and old alike, to gather and enjoy good food and company.

Her grandchildren were the pride and joy of her life. To her, they could do no wrong! She always looked forward to her brunch and lunch dates with them. When they went to her home, they always knew she would have their favorite Nanny Dogs and shortbread cookies of the nearest holiday.

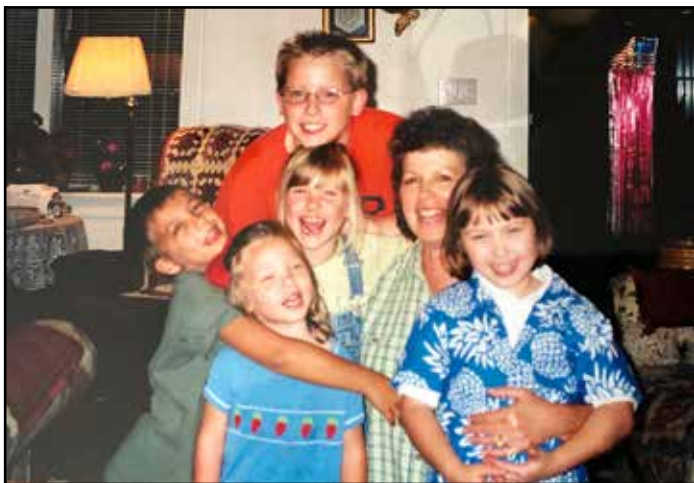

More than anything, Nancy is remembered for a never-ending smile and a tremendous strength she possessed. Never did she complain about the hardship she suffered but always thought of others. She never expressed how bad she felt but would only say, "Oh, I'm doing okay." She fought the good fight to the very end as she did not want to break her loved ones' hearts, especially her husband's heart of 60 years. Upon learning of her passing, a family friend described her as "Tiny, but Mighty." This is her legacy.

Survivors include her husband, Fred Norman, of Vidor; sons, Corky Norman, of Bon Weir, Texas; Mike Norman and his wife, Marcy, of Fannett; Joe Norman and his wife, Darla, of Mauriceville; grandchildren, Chance Norman and his wife, Sarah; Camp Norman, Taylor Norman, Lindsay Norman, Kaitlyn Norman, Jackson Norman; very close friends, Gwen Revia and family; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Ruth Marie and W.A. Jones; sister, Betty Averitt; brothers, Tommy Deisch, Jr., Robert Deisch, and James Earl Deisch.
