

Maurine Kariel Plettman

September 21, 1924 - January 17, 2017

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies.
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Maurine Kariel Plettman, 92, of Beaumont, died Tuesday, January 17, 2017. She was born on September 21, 1924, in Marshall, to Adele Stein Kariel and Louis Kariel, Sr. Maurine graduated from Marshall High School as valedictorian. She received her Bachelor's degree, with honors in English, from the University of Texas, where she was a member of Alpha Epsilon Phi as well as Phi Beta Kappa.

Stanley was overseas when he asked Maurine to marry him and deputized her brother, Louis, to put the ring on her finger. After marrying, Maurine and Stanley moved to Beaumont in 1949, when he joined Orgain Bell and Tucker. Her community involvement centered on Temple Emanuel.

Maurine and Stanley traveled the world extensively, exploring 4-star restaurants, birds, and seeing all the sights. She relished playing bridge and canasta with decades-long card-playing friends.

Maurine was sweet and gentle, while being a strong, emotional center for the family.

She loved being a grandmother to her two grandsons, Jonah and Zane, who she taught to be ruthless scrabble players.

Maurine is survived by her daughters, Linda Plettman Surley, of Missouri City; Susan Plettman Rankin and her husband, James, of Austin; Elaine Plettman and her husband, Steve Cummings, of Tyngsboro, Massachusetts; brother, Louis Kariel, Jr. and his wife, Audrey, of Marshall; and grandchildren, Jonah Plettman Rankin and Zane Wolfe Rankin, both of Seattle, Washington.

She is preceded in death by her parents; her husband of sixty-four years, Stanley Robert Plettman; and her brother, Stanley Kariel.

The family wishes to thank Maurine's long-time caregiver Gwen Comeaux for her gentle compassionate and enthusiastic care, as well as her newer compassionate caregivers from HomeInstead.

The family would also like to thank Connie Collis for her diligent, thorough, and professional assistance on all business matters.

Mourner's Kaddish English Translation

Glorified and sanctified be God's great name throughout the world which He has created according to His will. May He establish His kingdom in your lifetime and during your days, and within the life of the entire House of Israel, speedily and soon; and say, Amen.

May His great name be blessed forever and to all eternity.

Blessed and praised, glorified and exalted, extolled and honored, adored and lauded be the name of the Holy One, blessed be He, beyond all the blessings and hymns, praises and consolations that are ever spoken in the world; and say, Amen.

May there be abundant peace from heaven, and life, for us and for all Israel; and say, Amen.

He who creates peace in His celestial heights, may He create peace for us and for all Israel; and say, Amen.
