Faye Annette Prater was born October 3, 1947, in Bonham, Texas, and died November 1, 2017, at Baptist Hospital in Beaumont. She was a graduate of Jasper High School and completed her education at Lamar University with a certification as a Respiratory Therapist. She worked at various hospitals in the South East Texas area.

Ms. Prater was preceded in death by her birth parents; her adopted mother, Nellie Mauvaline Prater; adopted dad, John Earl Prater, who was a Church of Christ Preacher, and Bonnie Lee Prater, who she called Mother; half brother and sister, Jack Land and Paulette L. Self of Cooper, Texas; adopted sister, Bettye Jean Edwards of San Antonio and nephew David; and sister by desire Delores Griffith of Kerrville.

She is survived by nieces, Renate Edwards and Gina Gipson of San Antonio; sister by desire, Carroll Waldron of Kerrville; nephews Phil and Johnny Waldron, Dan Griffith, Jr., and others; friends and caregivers Cheryl Cash, Ronda Ellis and Anita Durham.

Special thanks to her primary care physician and friend Dr. Felix Russell Stovall and wife, Jerri; friend and former primary Dr. Erlinda Tan and husband, Buddy Falkner, of Alexandria, Louisiana; and Keith Herrin, Minister of Impact Church.

CONGRATULATIONS — Faye Prater, the daughter of Bonnie Prater of Beaumont and the late Earl Prater, received her associate degree in respiratory therapy from Lamar University Wednesday, May 11. Prater began her studies at Jasper Commercial College while working as a nurses' assistant at Mary Dickerson Hospital, and continued at Angelina Junior College while working at Lufkin State School. She is presently employed at St. Elizabeth Hospital in Beaumont in the Respiratory Therapy department.
