Carol Ann Miller Pullen

was born on January 1, 1941, to Robert Frank Miller and Mae McKneely in Kirbyville.

Carol attended school in Harlingen and Kirbyville. She married Wayne Pullen on August 18, 1956, and they have been married for sixty-three years. Carol worked in banking and mortgage banking as she followed her husband around Texas and Louisiana while he worked for the Santa Fe Railroad and the Texas Department of Public Safety. Her life was her bible, her music, and her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

Carol met her husband in late April 1956 at a café in Kirbyville. In May she moved with her mother to Beaumont and in July, her mother decided to move to Houston with Carol and a brother and sister. Wayne was determined not to let her leave. He was working in a shipyard in Port Arthur at the time and made a proposal to her mother. He promised her that if she would allow Carol to stay behind, he would buy two plates, two forks, two spoons, and two knives and they would get married. Since she was only fifteen years old, he took her and her mother to the courthouse in Beaumont for her mother to sign her consent. Wayne and Carol were married on August 18, 1956, in a church in Stowell. Wayne often told people that they changed each other's diapers the first six months they were married.

Survivors include her husband, Wayne Pullen; children, Douglas Pullen and his wife, DeRisa, of Wildwood; Kevin Pullen and his wife, Tammy, of The Woodlands; and Cyndi Patterson and her husband, Tom, of Lumberton; grandchildren, Jason Pullen and his wife, Janice; Justin Pullen and his wife, Cassie; Josh Pullen and his wife, Courtney; Jake Pullen and his wife, Hope; Ashley Drodgy and her husband, Jake; Jennifer Harugthy and her husband, Lee; and Jessica Munselle and her husband, James; thirteen great-grandchildren; sister, Linda Petrash and her husband, Jim, of Waller; and brother, Robert Miller and his wife, Ann, of Homosassa Springs, Florida. She is preceded in death by her parents.

“As a father has compassion on his children,
so the Lord has compassion on those who fear him;
for he knows how we are formed,
he remembers that we are dust.

The life of mortals is like grass,
they flourish like a flower of the field;
the wind blows over it and it is gone,
and its place remembers it no more.

But from everlasting to everlasting
the Lord’s love is with those who fear him, and his righteousness with their children’s children—with those who keep his covenant and remember to obey his precepts.”

Psalm 103:13-18
