

Rhett Ashton Reamy
February 5, 1996 - March 7, 2018

Celebrating the Life of
Rhett Ashton Reamy

Tuesday, March 13, 2018 10:00 a.m.

Broussard's Chapel

Beaumont, Texas

Mr. Michael Smith

Mr. Danny Smith

“Cemetery Gates”

by Pantera

Formal Welcome

Reading of the Obituary

Opening Prayer

Scripture Reading

John 14:1-6

“Hallelujah”

by Axel Rudi Pell

Scripture Reading

Psalm 23

Eulogy

Message of Hope

“Out of Love”

See Me, The Broken

Band members: Ethan Nolan, Roddy Hall,

Trevor Bolin, and Jonathan Edwards

Closing Prayer

Dismissal

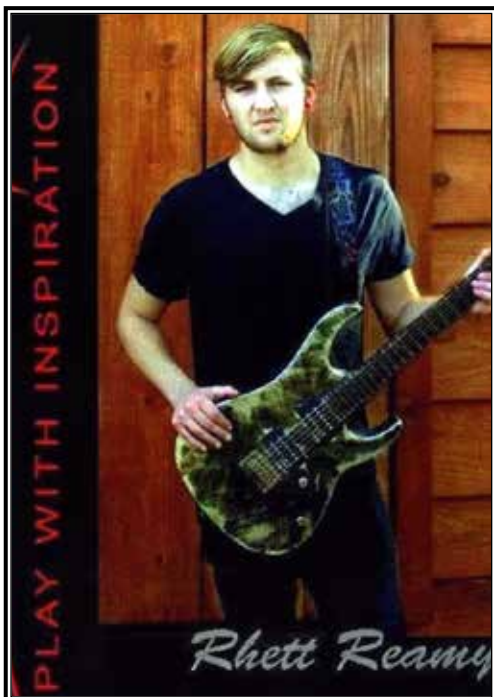

Rhett Ashton Reamy, 22, of Beaumont, died Wednesday, March 7, 2018. He was born on February 5, 1996, in Orange, to Tina Williams and Rex Alyn Reamy. Rhett was a welder in the petrochemical industry, and a musician.

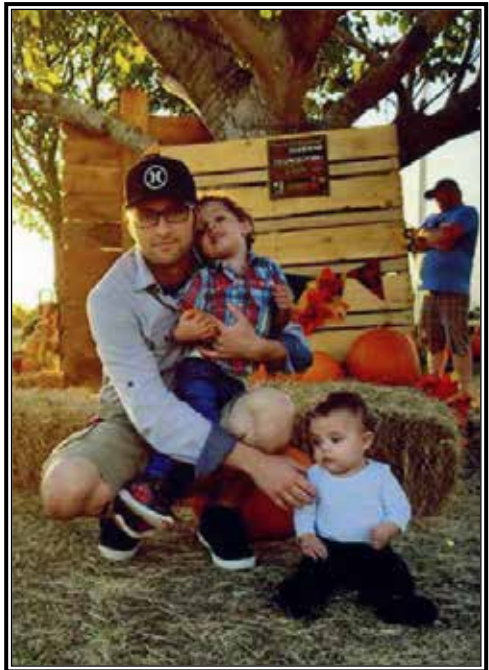

He is survived by his wife, Valerie Reamy; and sons, Ashton Reamy, Arthur Reamy, and Andrew Rhett Reamy; parents, Rex Reamy, Tina Havens, Cassy Reamy, and Martin Havens; siblings, Ryan Reamy, of Beaumont, Marisa Patrick, of Buna, Ross Reamy and Russ Reamy, both of Beaumont; grandparents, Helen and Jerry Kimbrell, of Shallow Water; Odell and Sherry Williams, of Buna; Dianne and Keith Rogers, of Beaumont; and Ricky Davis, of Mississippi; and his fur son, Bear.

Rhett is preceded in death by his, grandfather, Rick Reamy; and uncle, Rick Davis.

Broussards
Established 1889

Please sign Rhett's guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com