Gregory William Roberts, 57, of Beaumont, died Monday, October 1, 2018. He was born on July 11, 1961, to Joan Lynn Smith and Carroll Harry Roberts, Jr., in Beaumont. Gregory was the owner of Key Man Locksmith and was an avid hunter and gun collector. Greg left his Key Man business to work for KBR in support of the U.S. Military in Africa and in Iraq. As a young man he worked for Christian Book Stores where he had the opportunity to study many Old Saints lives and memorize both O.T and N.T Scriptures. Shortly before he left this earth he was remembering how happy he was when as a 5 year old he prayed to receive Jesus as his Lord and Savior.

Survivors include his son, Caleb Roberts; mother, Joanie Roberts; brother, Clay Roberts; sisters, Melissa Roberts and Lynn Duplecion; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his father, Harry Roberts, Jr.
