♥ Sam was God's perfect gift to me ♥
to walk together through life.

Messages & Memories from the Family

I loved my Dad. He was my hero in life and my brother in Christ.

How can we sum up that man's life in just a few short words? Granddaddy was always sweet with his grandchildren. Full of love and generosity. He loved us greatly and was loved by us greatly. He will be missed.

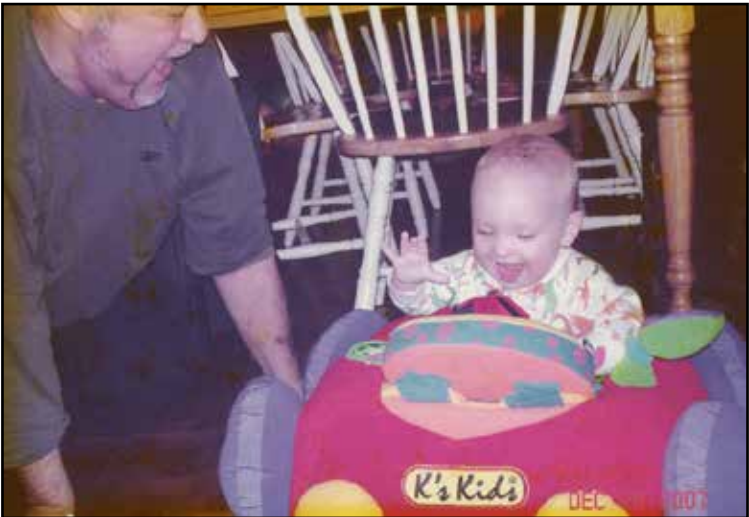

Sam was a private man, so out of respect I will refrain from accolades (of which there are many) and simply say that he loved with gusto, he gave with a glad heart, and he lived as he chose. He is strongly loved and will be sadly missed.

Granddad was a man of few words, but love was always one of them. He cared for all of those around him and gave generously to those in need. He will be missed.

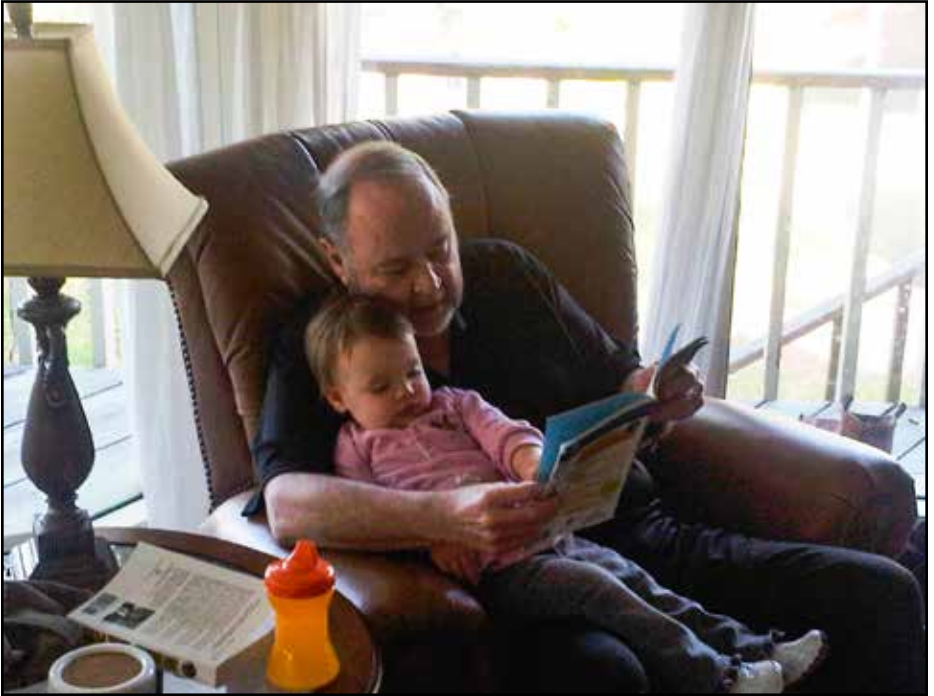

He was always so sweet to me and I never doubted how much he loved me. He was one of my husband's best friends and his hero for his whole life. He was "Ba-Daddy" to my kids and they loved watching cartoons with him and watching him be silly with all of his stuffed animals and funny hats. I will miss the sound of his soft voice and his hugs when we left his house. I will miss him waiving at us when we would drive away until he couldn't see us anymore. That will probably be my favorite memory of Sam. I'm glad he is with Jesus and I can't wait to see him again.

Dad was a behind the scenes kind of guy just like his secret service in the military. God used him to meet the needs of many needy people on the street and needs in the body of Christ. He loved to give. He was given the ability to make and retain money so that he had resources to give when God prompted his heart. Dad was steadfast and determined and quietly obedient to our Lord. A man of honor and integrity, he was in God's special forces. Even though Dad was a hard-core military guy he loved all things Disney, being goofy, and Christmas!

If you want to read more about the kind of man he was check out Psalms 112: 5-9

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The LORD is my shepherd,
I shall not want.

He makes me lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside quiet waters.

He restores my soul;
He guides me in the paths of righteousness
For His name's sake.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no evil, for You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You have anointed my head with oil;
My cup overflows.

Surely goodness and lovingkindness will follow me
all the days of my life,

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
