Shirley Jean Seale, 84, of Silsbee, died Sunday, December 31, 2017, at San Jacinto Manor Nursing Facility, Deer Park. She was born on September 20, 1933, in Houston, to Hazel Park and Ford Roach. Shirley retired as a key punch operator at Texaco.

Survivors include her children, Sharon and her husband, Craig, of Kilgore; David Doss, of San Leon; William Doss, of Sulphur, Louisiana; and Brenda Murphy, of Fayetteville, North Carolina; siblings, Patsy Carpenter and her husband, Irvin, of Rosenberg; Marvin Stanford and his wife, Terry and Gregory McInnis, of Texas City; and Janice McInnis, of Las Vegas Nevada; and thirteen grandchildren and eighteen great-grandchildren.

Shirley is preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Jack Seale; siblings, Beverly Rouse, Bobby Stanford, and Jacqueline Young.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies.
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
