Justin Dean Singletary, 23, of Winnie, died Friday, December 27, 2019. He was born on the evening of September 19th, 1996 and was the only child of Wendy Mann and Kevin Singletary. He was loved immensely from the moment he arrived by numerous aunts, uncles, grandparents and extended family.

Justin was a happy child who enjoyed the activities most little boys cherish, going fishing and hunting, playing basketball, baseball, and football and hanging out with friends and family. From the time Justin's father bought him his first guitar music played a significant role in his life. His love of music blossomed as he learned to play and sing. Those who knew Justin can produce at least one video of him singing and playing. As he struggled through the normal teenage years his friends, music and mama helped him become the person he was. Justin had a huge heart which earned him many friends. His constant smile and ability to make others laugh made Justin easy to talk to.

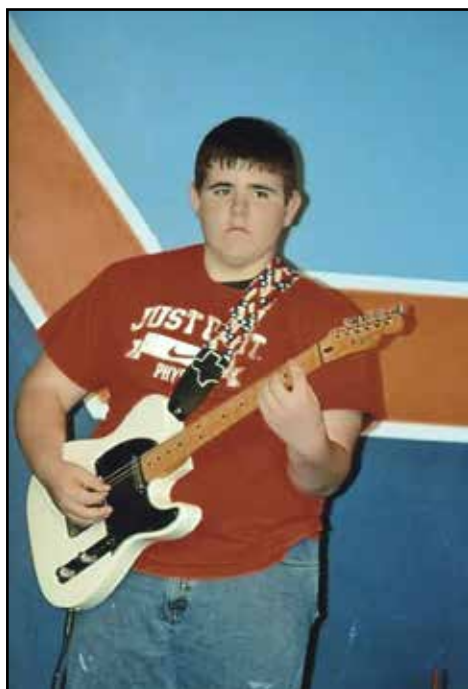

Ten days after his twentieth birthday, Justin received his most treasured gift, his son Jaxon. The day his son was born was one of the happiest, and proudest moments of his life. He was grinning from ear to ear when his precious Jaxon was born. Justin loved Jaxon as only a father can love a son. Everything he did was for his Jax.

Though Justin's time with us was short, his impact on each of us is forever. We will never forget his laughing, singing, joking, playing, and just being our silly Justin.

He is survived by his parents, Kevin Singletary and Wendy Benoit; son, Jaxon Singletary; grandfather, Charles Mann Jr., and his wife, Sandy; grandmother, Shirley Singletary; uncles, Clay Mann and Charles Mann III and his wife, Linda; and aunts, Diane Lenormand and her husband, David, Sandra Cornwell and her husband, Steve, and Rhonda Wright and her husband, Scott.

Obstacles in life Define how strong you are By how you handle them, how you pick up the pieces and carry on. Only you decide the weakness people see in you. A fake smile can go as far as you let it. people will Always aim to tear you down But Dont ~~to~~ let it. Take It as an Oppritunesty to Do better and achieve what they say you cannot. ~~Do~~ Be you, Noone else, and Keep on Keepin on.
