

Elsie Mae Spell

November 27, 1925 - July 29, 2018

Celebrating the Life of
Elsie Mae Spell

Thursday, August 2, 2018 12:00 p.m
Broussard's Chapel
Kountze, Texas
Reverend Kevin Luke

"Beulah Land"
Lessie Roth

Opening Prayer

"One Day at A Time"
by Cristy Lane

Eulogy

"One Pair of Hands"
by Elvis Presley

Message of Comfort

"Address Change Notification"
Lessie Roth

Closing Prayer

"Go Rest High on That Mountain"
by Vince Gill

Elsie Mae Spell, 92, of Silsbee, died Sunday, July 29, 2018. She was born on November 27, 1925, in Village Mills, to Lessie May Walters and Stonewall Stutts.

Survivors include her children, Dianne Hutto, of Silsbee; Merlon Sterling Spell and his wife, Carla, of Kirbyville; Douglas Parron Spell and Jimmy Mark Spell, of Silsbee; grandchildren, Toni Dianne Woods, of Evadale; Melanie Deanna Tobleman and her husband, Rick, of Vidor; Lucy Spell, of Houston; Kristie Reid, of Beaumont; and Dustin Spell, of Silsbee; great-grandchildren, Brandi Scharber, of Silsbee; Anthony Woods and his wife, Selena, of San Marcos; and Mindy Savoie, of Houston; and sisters Bobby Massingill and her husband, Bubbie and Carolyn Williams, both of Honey Island.

Elsie is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Merlon Lee Spell; son, Tommy Max Spell; and her siblings, Lounell Courts, Kenneth Eugene Stutts, and Albert Leon Suttus.

Silsbee Oaks also crowned King L.M. Hooks and Queen Elsie Spell from the Special Needs Unit. All of our honorees were clothed in robes, received stuffed teddy bears and crowns. The ladies also were given a bouquet of roses.

Pallbearers

Joel Massingill
Randy Stutts
Tanner Williams
Cecil Stimits
Steven Courts
Armon Gill

Interment

Village Mills Cemetery
Village Mills, Texas

Please sign Mrs. Spell's guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com