WORDS OF GRACE AND GREETING

Rev. Johnson

On Eagle's Wings

by Kitty Cleveland

You who dwell in the shelter of the Lord,
who abide in His shadow for life,
say to the Lord: "My refuge, my rock in whom I trust!"

Refrain: And He will raise you up on eagle's wings,
bear you on the breath of dawn,
make you to shine like the sun,
and hold you in the palm of His hand.

The snare of the fowler will never capture you,
and famine will bring you no fear:
under His wings your refuge, His faithfulness your shield.

Refrain: And He will raise you up on eagle's wings,
bear you on the breath of dawn,
make you to shine like the sun,
and hold you in the palm of His hand.

PASTORAL PRAYER

Rev. Johnson

*RESPONSIVE PSALTER

Psalm 121

Leader: I lift up my eyes to the hills.
From whence does my help come?

People: My help comes from the Lord,
who made heaven and earth.

Leader: The Lord will not let your foot be moved,
the Lord who keeps you will not slumber.

People: Behold, the One who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

Leader: The Lord is your keeper;

People: The Lord is your shade
on your right hand.

Leader: The sun shall not smite you by day,

People: nor the moon by night.

Leader: The Lord will keep you from all evil,
and will keep your life.

People: The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and for evermore.

PRAYER OF COMMENDATION

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Amazing Grace

by Patti Page

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost, but now I'm found.
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to feel
And grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.

Thought many dangers toils and snares
We have already come
'Twas grace that brought us here that far
And grace will lead us home

When we've been there ten thousand years
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Then when we first begun.

POSTLUDE

Congregation will please stand.

Rosanna Olga DeInnocentis Streety, 93, of Beaumont, Texas, passed away on January 31, 2017. She was born January 19, 1924, in Boston, Massachusetts, to Geneva Marcelli DeInnocentis and Vincent DeInnocentis.

Rosanna enjoyed her childhood in Boston and Somerville, Massachusetts. She attended Boston University and met her future husband at a USO dance in Boston. The two married in Palestine, Texas in 1943 and soon located to Beaumont. As you can imagine, moving from Boston to Beaumont, Texas in 1943 was quite the adventure. She often said she practically melted her first couple of years, as she was not used to the Southeast Texas heat, or the huge tree roaches.

Rosanna always enjoyed opera, and, in her youth, she enjoyed attending the Boston Pops. Her father instilled these loves in her. She was an avid reader, crossword puzzle fiend, and a jigsaw puzzle master. She also loved good conversation, pasta, and purses, or as they call them in New England, pocket books.

While she and her husband enjoyed traveling extensively, one her favorite places to be was the beach. Whether it was at Warham on Cape Cod, at her Auntie Tina's in Scituate, or Crystal Beach on the Bolivar Peninsula, she loved the beach and said it is where she felt her greatest peace. She passed this love on to her daughter, Sharon.

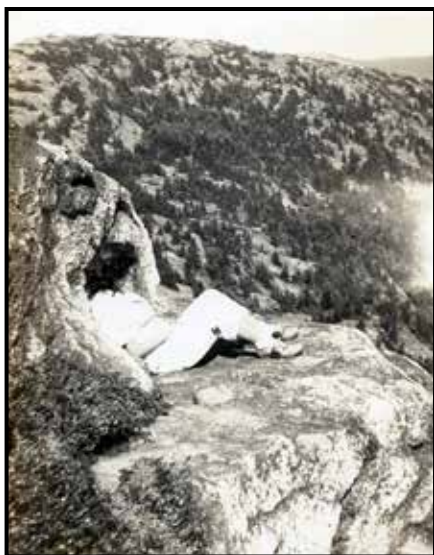

As to her work life, she worked for quite a few years at Sun Oil Company. Later, when her husband Don went into business as a home builder and land developer, she worked as his secretary and extremely precise bookkeeper.

During her life, she was active in the Beta Sigma Phi sorority, and volunteered for several years at Some Other Place, and later was a St. Elizabeth Hospital volunteer working in different capacities. Rosanna was also a founding member of Trinity United Methodist Church, and was quite active in The Friendship Class. She often taught, and acted as class president.

Rosanna is survived by her husband of seventy three years, William Donald Streety; son, Steven Randolph Streety and his wife, Janie; and daughter, Sharon Elaine Carlisle and her husband, Michael, all of Beaumont; as well as two grandchildren, William Bonner Streety, and his wife, Ashley, of Dallas; and Carrie Lee Carlisle of Beaumont.

Rosanna's family would like to thank the staff of Calder Woods Memory Care and Skilled Nursing Units and Buckner Hospice for their care and concern.

The family of Mrs. Streety will serve as pallbearers.
