Mary Lou Hunter Terry died peacefully in her sleep on Thursday, March 22, 2018.

Born to Annie Edmonston Hunter and Thomas Harbert Hunter, Jr. in Voth, Texas on December 10, 1919, Mary Lou moved to Beaumont when she was three months old. She attended Averill Elementary, Dick Dowlen Jr. High School and Beaumont High School. She graduated in the top ten of her high school class and was a class favorite. At the University of Texas she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority, and was a Bluebonnet

Belle and Kappa Alpha Rose. In 1941, Mary Lou married Jerome Terry, Jr. at the Wesminster Presbyterian Church in Beaumont. They lived in California during the war years and returned to Beaumont to raise their three children, Julie Hise, Lou Huber and Jerome Terry III.

Mary Lou loved playing bridge at the Beaumont Bridge Studio where she made many lifelong friends. She was considered a wonderful bridge player and was a Silver Life Master. She was a member of the Junior League of Beaumont and dedicated volunteer with many other organizations.

Mary Lou was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and son, her sisters Frances Heyck, Marjorie Peterson Minton, and Carroll Nelson; her brothers Harbert Hunter, William Hunter, and Keith Hunter and her son in law, Jay Hise.

She is survived by her children; Julie Hise, Lou Huber and husband John; her grandchildren and spouses; David and Maureen Holt, Hunter Hise, Jennifer and Luke Wheeler, Allison and Mike Martin, Cullen and Meredith Hise and Julie Biggart; her great-grandchildren; Will, Sam and Alice Holt, Campbell and Harrison Wheeler, Madison Jacobs, Avery and Will Hise, Louise and Jack Biggart and her many nieces and nephews.

Lulu, to her grandchildren, and Great Lulu, to her great-grandchildren, was a treasure! Blessed with a wonderful sense of humor, she made us all laugh at her hilarious stories up until the end of her wonderful long life.
