Thomas “Tommy” Holbrook Threadgill, 62, of Beaumont, died Friday, November 9, 2018. He was born on July 28, 1956, to Mary Evelyn Holbrook Threadgill and George Thomas Threadgill, in Bryan-College Station. Tommy grew up in Southeast Texas and Louisiana. He was a 1975 graduate of Forest Park High School in Beaumont, TX. He was an avid hunter and fisherman, enjoyed watching the Dallas Cowboys and Houston Astros, and could recite any line from Lonesome

Dove. He would answer to Little Tommy, THT, “Favorite” Uncle, Dudney, Little Gardo, and Grumps. He was very loyal to his friends and family, they meant everything to him.

Survivors include his sisters, Patricia Allen and her husband, Kenneth Allen, of Lumberton; Kathryne Bich of Pearland; brother, Sidney Pulliam of Beaumont; Step-children, Matt Raven and his wife, Amy, of Victoria; Megan Hotz and her husband, Roger, of Victoria, and Jason Raven, and his wife Brandi of Victoria; eight grandchildren; four nieces; four nephews; three great-nephews; two great-nieces, his little buddy, Shayhan; and a host of relatives and friends.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Patricia Ann Jones Threadgill; parents; grandparents Garland and Beatrice Holbrook, Hazel and Pa Teal, Sam and Eva Threadgill; and Brother-in-law Scot Bich.
