

Kelli Christine Townley

April 2, 1977 - July 18, 2017

Kelli Christine Townley, 40, of Beaumont, died Tuesday, July 18, 2017. She was born on April 2, 1977, to Sharron Lorraine DuPont Mallett and Robert Louis Mallett in Welsh, Louisiana. Kelli worked as a pharmacist for Market Basket.

Kelli graduated valedictorian of Lacassine High School class of 1995. She attended McNeese State University as an undergraduate, was accepted into the pharmacy school at the University of Louisiana at Monroe, and graduated pharmacy school Summa Cum Laude in her class of 2002. She was a talented, caring, and knowledgeable pharmacist whom patients highly respected.

Survivors include her husband, Robert Townley; children, Lucas, Lydia, Joshua and his wife, Jessie, and Timothy; grandchild, Adilene; mother, Sharron Mallett; sister, Lori Lognion and her husband, John; mother and father-in-law, Ella Mae Inman and Milton Inman; and nieces, Sarah and Hannah.

She is preceded in death by her father, Robert Mallett; and grandparents, Theo and Lucille Mallett and Vurney and Wanda DuPont.

Her life will be remembered in the love that lives on in her family. Kelli's joy in life was her family, and she was a loving wife, mother, daughter, and sister.

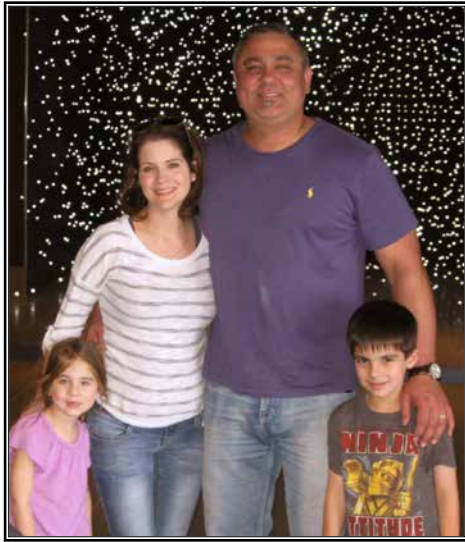

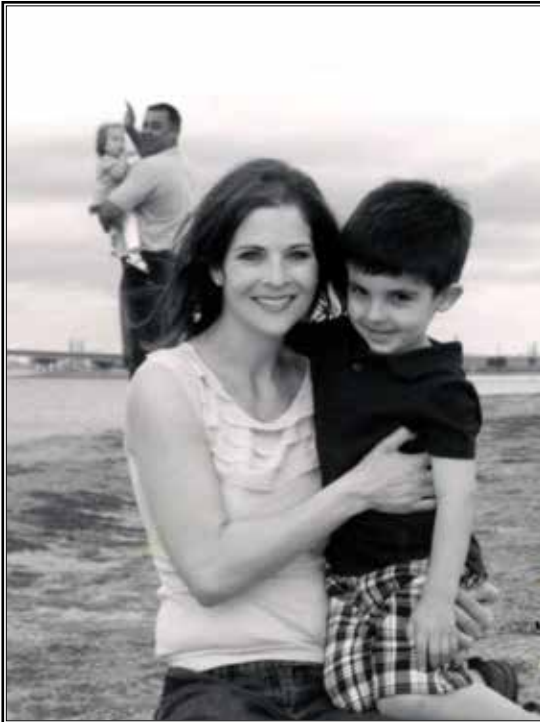

A Mother's Love

Helen Steiner Rice

*A Mother's love is something that no one can explain,
It is made of deep devotion and of sacrifice and pain,
It is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may For nothing can destroy it or take that love away...
It is patient and forgiving
when all others are forsaking,
And it never fails or falters even though the heart is breaking...
It believes beyond believing when the world around condemns,
And it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems...
It is far beyond defining,
it defies all explanation,
And it still remains a secret like the mysteries of creation...
A many splendoured miracle man cannot understand And another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.*
