Homer Tyler, Jr., 51, of Fred, died Saturday, May 26, 2018. He was born on October 28, 1966, in Woodville, to Ouida Merle Behannon Tyler and Homer Woodrow Tyler, Sr.

Homer was a beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend to many. He and his wife were married for thirty years and raised a beautiful family together. Homer was a very hard-working man who provided for his family his whole life. He found humor in everything and could make anyone laugh. He lived life in the moment. Homer's grandchildren were his main passion in life and were by his side almost everywhere. He was an avid outdoors man, who could name every creek in Hardin and Tyler counties, which he passed down to his children and grandchildren. Homer was a master diesel mechanic and his diagnostic skills were second to none. He had a reputation of greatness and respected by all. He will be missed by many.

Survivors include his wife, Melissa Tyler; children, Michael Hooks, II and his wife, Kaylan, of Fred and Marlana Brocato and her husband, Nick, of Kountze; grandchildren, Michael "Mikey" Hooks, III, Jase Conner, Peyton "June Bug" Hooks, and Marriella "Ella" Jane Brocato; siblings, Eloise Johnson and her husband, Ollie, of Santa Fe; Wanda Williams Underwood of New Braunfels; Roger Gober of Warren; Rhonda Davis and her husband, Lonnie, of Florida; Paula Johnston of Kountze; Melissa Riehl and Steve Jordan, of Warren; and Dancie Teague of Dickinson; and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins. He is preceded in death by his parents.
