Sarah Virginia Van Randen, 87, of Nederland, died Friday, December 1, 2017. She was born on February 7, 1930, in Hammond, Louisiana, to Bessie Caven and George Hastings. Virginia enjoyed painting, crochet, and playing puzzles.

Survivors include her son, Michael Van Randen and his wife, Tracey, of Nederland; daughter, Lou Ann Chism of Orange; son, John W. Van Randen, Jr.; three grandchildren, William Van Randen, Tonya Powell, and Timothy Chism; seven great-grandchildren; sister-in-law, Nancy Bernard of Nederland; and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, John Warren Van Randen, Sr.; and six sisters.

But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow as others who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus.

For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep. For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore comfort one another with these words.

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18
