Roxanna Erwin Wilkinson, 64, of Beaumont, Texas left to be with the Lord Sunday, July 1, 2018. She was born October 12, 1953, to Jack and Sue Erwin in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Roxy was a Registered Nurse for over twenty years. She dedicated her life to the care of others. She was an avid reader, sports fan (Go Cowboys) and also known as the “Scrabble Queen”. Her feisty personality paired with her strong political views ignited many long nights of passionate debates. She was a person of faith and lived her life treating everyone she met as part of her family. Roxy will be missed but never forgotten; her new mission takes her to a wonderful place.

Survivors include her husband Jeff Wilkinson of Beaumont; her children, Tammy and husband, Phillip Dupree Jr., of Nederland; Eisha and husband, Greg Killian, of Beaumont; Dion Jackson of Nederland; Morgan and husband, Aaron Williams, of College Station; Hannah and husband, Coy Nelson, of Groves; Ronald and wife, Amanda Nichols, of Nederland; Jordan Wilkinson and Kendall Wilkinson, both of Lindale; and twelve grandchildren.
