

Beatrice Dean Willis
January 10, 1932 - July 28, 2019

Beatrice Dean Willis, a long-time resident of Winnie, Texas, died Sunday, July 28, 2019 at The Forum in Houston, Texas.

Born in 1932 to Monroe and Carrie Dean, she was raised on a farm in Hill County, Texas. She married Henry Ray Willis in July of 1951 and celebrated over fifty years of marriage.

She is survived by her daughter, Donna Willis-Brown (Matthew Brown) and her son, Matt Willis (Jennifer Lowery Willis), three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, all of whom she loved dearly.

Bea was a devoted wife and mother. She enjoyed socializing with friends, bowling, dancing, and volunteering in the community. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Winnie.

She spent many years working in the East Chambers Schools and finally retired from the Texas Department of Banking where she was recognized for years of outstanding service.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and her beloved young sons, Donald and Jackie Willis.
