James Frank Worthy, Jr., 47, of Nederland, died Wednesday, December 4, 2019, at Memorial Hermann Southwest Hospital, Houston. He was born October 30, 1972, in San Antonio, to Judy Daugherty Worthy and James Frank Worthy, Sr.

James was known as “Bubba” by his family and as “Jimmy” by his friends. He loved sports, especially, football and baseball. The Nederland Bulldogs, Houston Astros, University of Texas Longhorns, and Washington Redskins were his favorite teams. He also enjoyed duck hunting, fishing, and drinking craft beer. His family and friends meant the most to him. He was a senior HSE specialist with Thorpe where he worked for many years with his dad, uncle, and cousins. He loved his job and took pride in it. He was kind, giving, honest, and full of love and integrity. He had the best smile, laugh, and hugs. To know him was to love him. Most importantly, he will be remembered as a faithful Christian man that loved his Lord.

Survivors include his wife, Ashley Worthy, of Nederland; sisters, Kathie Cooper-Janik and her husband, John, of Kasilof, Alaska; Sheila Yarbrough and her husband, Mark, of Lumberton; Lisa Cooper and her husband, James, of Port Arthur; and Alice Badeaux and her husband, Mitch, of Port Neches; parents-in-law, Gail and Tommy Martin; his fur babies, Lola, Aurora, and Iris; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, and close friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Judy and James Worthy, Sr.; grandparents, Mary Hilda and Edwin Worthy, Sr. and Pearl and William Daugherty; and uncle, Ed Worthy, Jr.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

Author Unknown

When tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,
That an Angel came and called my name,
And took me by the hand;
The Angel said my place was ready,
In Heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But when I walked through Heaven's Gates,
I felt so much at home,
For God looked down, smiled at me,
And told me "Welcome Home".
So, when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart.
