

We believe that all the ties of friendship and affection which knit us as one throughout our lives
do not unravel with death.

GREETING AND BLESSING OF THE BODY

As a reminder of Linda's Baptism, her urn has been sprinkled with Baptismal water. Then, a pall, recalling the white garment of her Baptism, is placed on the urn.

"If we have died with Christ, we are also to live with Christ in glory."

We Celebrate #940

Linda Procell Wright, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, aunt, teacher, and mother of dogs died Thursday, April 26, 2018, in Houston. She was 73.

A native of Hemphill, Texas, resident of Bevil Oaks and proud graduate of Lamar University, she taught school in Humble, Soddy-Daisy, Tennessee, and Beaumont for almost thirty years. She was an all- district basketball player at Hemphill High School and could beat her sons in one-on-one well into their teens. She remained a basketball fan the rest of her life.

As a mother, she banned white bread from the house, strictly limited intake of soft drinks and required her children to eat leafy green vegetables. As a grandmother, she dedicated her dining room to junk food, served ice cream for breakfast and dared anyone to do anything about it.

She is survived by her husband of fifty years, Jim Wright of Bevil Oaks; sons, Mike Wright and his wife, Pam, of Austin, and Stephen Wright and his wife, Emily, of Denton; daughter, Jennifer Wright of Beaumont; sister, Shirley Marsh of Jasper; grandchildren, Tristan, Alec, and Mackenzie Wright, all of Austin, and Garrett and Brooklyn Wright, both of Denton; and a generation of students.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Rosie Lee and Pete Procell; brothers, Jimmie and Pete Procell; and sisters, Mary Prud'homme, Alice Procell, and Martha Barcheers.
