Ronnie Barrow, 77, of Port Neches, died Thursday, January 14, 2021, at Houston Methodist Baytown Hospital. He was born April 22, 1943, in Beaumont, to Hazel Irene Loftin Barrow and Luther Marvin Barrow.

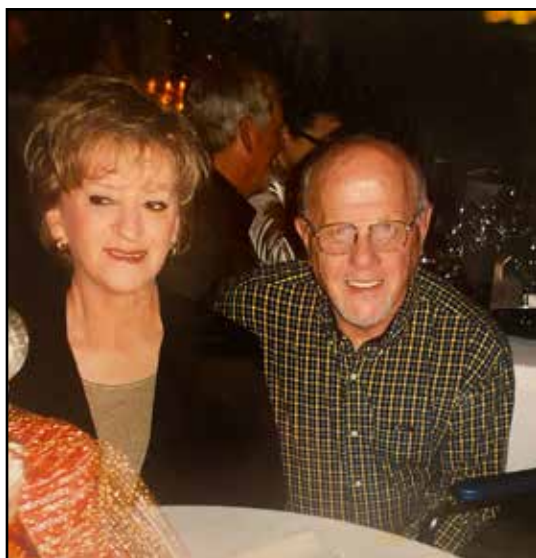

Ronnie was a United States Air Force veteran. He was a 1961 graduate of South Park High School, Beaumont, where he was a Golden Glove Boxer and tennis player. He coached youth sports until his kids got involved in school athletics. Ronnie was an avid sports fan and especially loved the Nederland Bulldogs. He was a devoted grandfather and if his grandchildren were involved in an extracurricular activity he was always there. He loved to watch any sport in which his children or grandchildren played or coached. Ronnie enjoyed listening to oldies and gospel music.

Survivors include his wife, Linda Barrow, of Port Neches; children, Monte Barrow and wife, Amber, of Nederland; Tammy Monk and husband, Troy, of Mont Belvieu; and Keith Barrow and wife, Heather, of Nederland; grandchildren, Jordyn; Seth; Brayden; Pierce; Brenden; Payne; Reeve; Brek; and Holt; great-grandson, Kellen; and sister, Sharon Tatum and husband, Steve, of Lumberton.

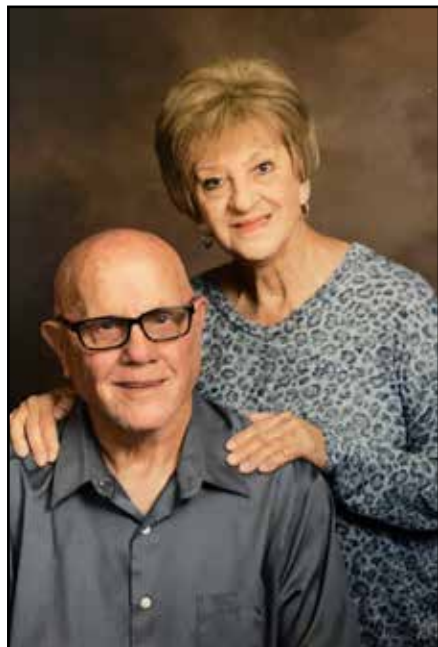

He is preceded in death by his parents, Hazel and Luther Barrow; and brother, L.M. Barrow.
