“Egypt”

by Cory Asbury and Bethel Music

I won't forget, the wonder of how You brought
Deliverance, the exodus of my heart
'Cause You found me, You freed me
Held back the waters for my release
O Yahweh

You're the God who fights for me
Lord of every victory
Hallelujah
Hallelujah
You have torn apart the sea
You have led me through the deep
Hallelujah
Hallelujah, oh

The cloud by day, is a sign that You are with me
The fire by night, is the guiding light to my feet
'Cause You found me, You freed me
Held back the waters for my release
O Yahweh

You're the God who fights for me
Lord of every victory
Hallelujah
Hallelujah
You have torn apart the sea
You have led me through the deep
Hallelujah
Hallelujah, oh

You're the God who fights for me
Lord of every victory
Hallelujah
Hallelujah
You have torn apart the sea
You have led me through the deep
Hallelujah
Hallelujah, oh

You stepped into my Egypt
And You took me by the hand
And You marched me out in freedom
Into the promised land
And now I will not forget You, no
I'll sing of all You've done
Death is swallowed up forever
By the fury of Your love

'Cause You stepped into my Egypt
And You took me by the hand
You marched me out in freedom
Into the promised land
Now I will not forget You, God
I'll sing of all You've done
Death is swallowed up forever
By the fury of Your love

You're the God who fights for me
Lord of every victory
Hallelujah
Hallelujah
You have torn apart the sea
You have led me through the deep
Hallelujah
Hallelujah

And You're the God who fights for me
Lord of every victory
Hallelujah
Hallelujah
And You have torn apart the sea
You have led me through the deep
Hallelujah
Hallelujah

'Cause You stepped into my Egypt
You took me by the hand
And You marched me out in freedom
Straight into the promised land
Now I will not forget You, no
I'll sing of all You've done
Death is swallowed up forever
By the fury of Your love

Dane Joseph Broussard, 57, of Fannett, died Monday, January 4, 2021. He was born on August 18, 1963 to Emily LeBlanc Broussard and James Nicholas Broussard in Port Arthur, Texas.

Dane lived in Lufkin for approximately twenty-five years doing what he loved. He owned and operated Wheat's Alternator/Starter Service then later Dane's Alternator/Starter Service. He was a current employee by FABCON Industrial in which he had the pleasure of working with his brother, mother, and brother-in-law as Safety Manager and Senior Sales Consultant. He returned to Fannett in 2012 to start a new venture in his life. He always longed to be close to his parents and siblings. Southeast Texas served him well for all of his hobbies and activities. He was an avid golfer, hunter, and fisherman. Fishing was closest to his heart. If he was going fishing, there was no real sleeping or resting the night before.

He was all about family and family always came first. If anyone needed anything, he would find a way to make it come to fruition. He absolutely loved all his cronies. He had life-long friendships in Lufkin and Southeast Texas that he was still in contact with on a regular basis.

Survivors include his wife, Tonya Broussard, of Fannett; parents, James and Emily Broussard, of Fannett; daughters, Kaitlyn Lebel and her husband, Chris, of Lufkin and Hannah Baker, of Winnie; stepson, Clint Choate, of Orlando, Florida; grandchildren, Carson Lebel, Randy Shane Lebel, and Jesse Baker; twin brother, Dean James Broussard and his wife, Becky, of Fannett; twin sisters, Jada Ann Cooper and her husband, Randy, of Fannett; Jean Ann Rippeon and her husband, Jimmy, of Beaumont; nephews, Ryan Rippeon and Reese Rippeon; and niece, Emily Rippeon.
