She was a loving mother and homemaker to John and Frank. Katheryn also worked as an office manager for Dr. Travis for over 20 years before retiring with Sylvester to travel and enjoy the summers with their grandchildren. She was an active member of St. Pius and enjoyed serving in the church. She enjoyed tending to her flower gardens, sewing, cooking and watching the purple martins return every spring from her back porch. She loved her family deeply and always made precious time to show them she did. Katheryn lived a life of integrity, faith and grace.

She is survived by son, John S. Garbo and sister, Lena Brocato. She is also survived by three grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren.
