Dismissal

Thelma Jude Jackson, 92, of Beaumont, died Sunday, January 24, 2021. She was born on March 28, 1928, in Williamson West Virginia the second of six children. She grew up during the Great Depression but never lacked for love from family and the simplest things in life.

Thelma met Ralph D. Jackson and were married in November 1952 and moved to Ohio before coming to Beaumont during the summer of 1961 with Ralph and her two small children, Sharon and Dawnita.

She was a faithful member of Calvary Baptist Church for fifty-nine years where she taught Sunday School, worked as a church secretary and served in other ministries of the church.

After retirement, Thelma and Ralph took their Airstream trailer and traveled mostly to their favorite areas of Colorado. In later years she enjoyed several cruises, trips through the Alaskan interior and the Yukon as well as train travel across the Canadian Rocky Mountains. Family trips to the Blue Ridge Mountains of Georgia and a visit to the Grand Canyon. At 80 years of age, she took flight in a hot air balloon over the plains of New Mexico.

Thelma is survived by her two daughters, Sharon and Dawnita; along with nieces, Twylia (Mike) Dillman, and their children, Mara and Logan of Arlington, Texas; Tonya (Jim) Boykin and their children, Allie, Madison and Kaylee of McKinney, Texas; Paige (Keith) Varney and family of Port Saint Lucie, Florida and Mary Given of Homosassa, Florida.

Surviving nephews include Stephen Greenert and family of Louisville, Kentucky, Wesley Greenert and family of Shepherdsville, Kentucky, Keith Jude and family of Hilton Head Island, South Carolina, Rev. Barry Jude and family of Grand Prairie, Texas, Chris Jude of Miami, Florida and Raymond Jackson (Christine) of Asheville, North Carolina.

She is also survived by two sisters-in-law, Jo Jude of McKinney, Texas and Pat Jude of Forest Hills, Kentucky.

She was preceded by her loving husband, Ralph D. Jackson; and all her siblings, Grady, Ernie, Harry, Elva and Carolyn.
