Dorothy Mae Carroll Ladd, 91, of Lumberton, went to be with her Heavenly Father on Saturday, February 6, 2021. She was born on February 2, 1930 in Hortense, Texas to Sylester and Charlie Carroll. She grew up and attended school at Big Sandy, in Dallardsville, Texas. Dorothy moved to Beaumont after high school, lived at the YWCA, and worked as a phone operator for several years. She met and married the love of her life, moved to Lumberton, and worked as a busy and loving homemaker, mother and mawmaw.

Dorothy and her family were active members of Cornerstone Church of the Nazarene in Beaumont for many years. She enjoyed being a part of the women's ministry group where many sewing, quilting and craft projects brought the ladies together to minister to each other and those around them. She was always busy helping in the kitchen with church dinners, VBS, and other activities around the church. More recently Dorothy and Boyd attended and enjoyed worshipping at Orange First Church of the Nazarene then Parkway Life Church in Lumberton.

Dorothy spent much of her spare time as an avid seamstress. Her talent for sewing, quilting, crocheting, and cross stitch produced many beautiful works of art. Dorothy also enjoyed gardening with Boyd and working in her flower beds. Spending quality time and fishing with friends and family at their lake house on Toledo Bend was also a favorite pastime. What Dorothy loved the most, whether at home or at the lake, was spending time with family. She cherished the moments spent with grandchildren playing games, reading books and telling stories. What a storyteller she was!

Dorothy is preceded in death by her parents, Sylester and Charlie Carroll, sisters Louise Broussard and Lucille Mills, and brothers Laville, Harris, Carl, Claude, Warren, Elton, and Lamar (Bud) Carroll.

Dorothy was survived by her loving and devoted husband of 72 years, Boyd Ladd, until his death on February 9, 2021. She is survived by her daughters, Sandra Hicks and her husband, Billy and Stacey Beard and her husband, Darrell, all of Lumberton. Mawmaw is survived by her grandchildren, Leslie Hicks, Erin Hicks, Brittany Hilton, Brittney Beard, Lindsey Duvall and her husband, Kendall and Darrell (D.J.) Beard, Jr. Her great-grandchildren who will miss their sweet and devoted Mawmaw are Issabelle, Khloie, Taylor, Kiersten, Drew, Riley, Emaleigh, Ava, Ella, and Rose. Dorothy is also survived by a host of loving nieces, nephews, and her sister-in-law, Bonnie Carroll Gay.
