Deborah Jean Clark Slampa, 55, of Nederland, died Tuesday, June 23, 2020. She was born on August 31, 1964, in Beebe, Arkansas, to Clara Fern Hamric Clark and Olen Gene Clark.

Deborah had the biggest heart for her family and friends. Deborah loved and lived every moment she was given, neither hard times nor cancer could rob her of who she was. She never once questioned or lost her faith during her fight.

She is survived by her spouse, Billy Slampa, of Nederland; children, Jeff Scott Everett, of Lewiston, Maine;

Heather “Dakota” Martin and her husband, Travis Fontanille, of Groves; Jason Allan Slampa, of Magnolia; William “B.J.” Slampa, of Beaumont; and Addam Walker, of Beaumont; grandchildren, Ella Fontanille; Cael Everett; Sunny Walker; Maddox Walker; and Cyneese Walker; siblings, Russel Clark and his wife, Lyndilyn; Carol Tiller and her husband, Kevin; Ken Clark and his wife, Donna; William Fogarty and his wife, Tammie; Tammy Smith; and Mary Tupper; numerous nieces, nephews, and extended family.

She is preceded in death by her parents.

*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am in a thousand winds that blow,
I am the softly falling snow.
I am the gentle showers of rain,
I am the fields of ripening grain.
I am in the morning hush,
I am in the graceful rush
Of beautiful birds in circling flight,
I am the starshine of the night.
I am in the flowers that bloom,
I am in a quiet room.
I am in the birds that sing,
I am in each lovely thing.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there. I do not die.*
