William W. “Billy” Young

was born on January 31, 1924 to Willie M. Young and Hallie Leah Clubb. He was born and raised in Fannett, Texas and resided there until 1976. At that time, he moved to Beaumont for a short while and then on to Indian Springs, Texas after retirement. Billy was diagnosed with Alzheimer’s and resided in a nursing facility during his last years. He departed this earth for his heavenly home on February 6, 2021, due to COVID-19 and just days after celebrating his 97th birthday.

Billy retired in 1984, after 40 years of service, as a foreman for the Jefferson County Precinct 4 Road & Bridge Department. During his childhood and early years, he helped at many of the local rice farms and worked cows. In 1941, he met and married Helen Bundick Young, together they raised six children. They divorced in the mid-1970s. He later married Linda VanDevender and raised four boys. They resided in Mid-County for a short time before moving to Indian Springs. He and Linda remained in Indian Springs until her death in 2015.

Billy enjoyed dancing and good music! Most weekends you could find him occupying the dance floor, enjoying the music and a “cold one” now and again. He loved people and never met a stranger. Billy enjoyed visiting! He was the one who kept in touch with his numerous family members and friends. You could always count on him to have either Wrigley’s gum or peppermints in his shirt pocket. Billy loved the outdoors, gardening, and making his homemade wine. He was a great supporter of his children being actively involved in sports and extra-curricular activities at school, from Charles and Tilford playing football to Chet and Michael being in FFA. He taught all of us the meaning of a good work ethic and to take care of business. Billy worked hard and played twice as hard! He lived his best life and loved all his family.

He is preceded in death by his parents, both wives, sister, Lorraine Bundick LeBlanc, two sons, Charles W. Young and Tilford L. Young, son-in-law, John R. Green, numerous relatives and good friends.

Billy is survived by children: Bruce W. Young (Faye), Loretta Green, James W. Young (Jamie), Tammy Hamm (Tony), James VanDevender (Vanette), David “Bubba” VanDevender (Mindy), John “Chet” VanDevender (Cindy), Michael VanDevender (Stacy) and daughter-in-law, Dee Ann Young. He is also survived by 29 grandchildren, 37 great grandchildren, 5 great-great grandchildren, many family members, and friends.

The family would like to thank James & Jamie for watching over Daddy’s affairs and his medical needs. The family would also like to extend a heartfelt thank you to the staff at Silsbee Oaks Healthcare and Woodville Health and Rehab Center for taking care of our Daddy during his last years.

And until we meet again, “Same here darlin!”
