Psalm 91

He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High
Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress;
My God, in Him I will trust."

Surely He shall deliver you from the snare of the [a]fowler
And from the perilous pestilence.
He shall cover you with His feathers,
And under His wings you shall take refuge;
His truth shall be your shield and [b]buckler.
You shall not be afraid of the terror by night,
Nor of the arrow that flies by day,
Nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness,
Nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday.

A thousand may fall at your side,
And ten thousand at your right hand;
But it shall not come near you.
8 Only with your eyes shall you look,
And see the reward of the wicked.

Because you have made the Lord, who is my refuge,
Even the Most High, your dwelling place,
No evil shall befall you,
Nor shall any plague come near your dwelling;
For He shall give His angels charge over you,
To keep you in all your ways.
In their hands they shall [c]bear you up,
Lest you [d]dash your foot against a stone.
You shall tread upon the lion and the cobra,
The young lion and the serpent you shall trample underfoot.

"Because he has set his love upon Me, therefore I will deliver him;
I will [e]set him on high, because he has known My name.
He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble;
I will deliver him and honor him.
With [f]long life I will satisfy him,
And show him My salvation."

Lou Ella Gaspard Chappell, 87, of Beaumont, died Thursday, August 5, 2021. She was born on May 13, 1934, in Abbeville, Louisiana, to Nita Marie Toups Gaspard and Wilton Joseph Gaspard. Lou was a longtime member of St. Anne's Catholic Church and was on the Bereavement Committee, served at the local soup kitchen - Some Other Place, was actively involved in the Ladies Bible Study class, participated in Adoration Chapel and was a member of the 49ers group among other activities.

She worked very hard all her life from telephone solicitor, to administrative assistant, to manager, to co-owner (with her brother Harold) and manager of the New Orleans bakery, Your Daily Bread.

Lou was an avid reader and treasured God's Word and the teachings therein. She absolutely loved spending time with her family; for decades she prepared weekly family meals which facilitated all gathering around her table to enjoy much conversation laughter, fellowship and her excellent cooking! Her table was always welcoming; in fact, she served guests from over 11 different countries through the years and many called her "Mawmaw," as did most of her grandchildren. She was adventurous, traveling at least twice a year to visit her son and his family in the Texas Panhandle, and while there she oftentimes would help work the cows, drive machinery and mend fences at his Angus ranch. She may have been petite but she was stout of heart; through her life, she stood up for the things she believed in and taught her family to do the same. She also gave of herself to protect and defend the innocent or weak. She was a prayer warrior and her petitions will be greatly missed by those she loved. She delighted in the symphony and all forms of live entertainment. It thrilled her to travel, to play games and to build ginger bread houses with her grand and great grandchildren. She had a zeal for good rocking chairs -- there are countless worn-out rockers in the world because of her. Lou will be remembered for her famous Cajun cooking, her servant's heart, and her love for God, Family and Life.

Survivors include her son, Jimmy Goode and his wife, Glennette, of Pampa; daughter, Pamela Durr and her husband, Donald, of Beaumont; grandsons, Jeremy Goode and his wife, Liana, of Pampa; Jonathan Durr and his wife, Tryphena, of Beaumont; Daniel Durr, of Beaumont; and David Durr and his wife, Yi Wen “Wenny”, of Beaumont; great-grandsons, Roland Goode and Andrew Durr; sister, Janet Walker, of Houma, Louisiana; brothers, Harold Gaspard, of New Orleans, Louisiana; Gerald Gaspard and his wife, Beverly, of Abbeville, Louisiana; and Johnny Gaspard, of Abbeville, Louisiana; numerous nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

She is preceded in death by her first husband of nineteen years, J.W. Goode; her second husband of seventeen years, Wilfred Chappell; parents; brother, Newton Gaspard; and sister, Lois Sellers.
