Christopher Carl Cooksey,

29, of Orange, went to be with his beloved Heavenly Father, March 5, 2021. He was born on August 26, 1991, to Angela Elizabeth Kroemeke and Ryan Anthony Cooksey, in Fort Worth.

Christopher was a devoted and loving husband, father, son, sibling, and dedicated friend. He deeply loved the Lord and lived his life through faith. Christopher had a servant's heart and was a light in many lives with his jovial and spirited personality, his unfailing love, and his giving nature. Chris relentlessly lived his life to the fullest and his passion was infectious. He was a gifted and talented musician who loved to write, play, and sing beautiful music. Christopher was in sales at a local furniture store and a Worship Ministry Associate with Calvary Baptist Church North Campus. He will always be loved and dearly missed.

He is survived by his wife, Misty Fults Cooksey; daughter, Kailyn Young; and son, Ivan Cooksey, all of Orange; sister, Savannah Cooksey, of Austin; brother, Joseph Kroemeke, of Nederland; father, Ryan Cooksey and mother, Allysen Cooksey, both of The Woodlands; mother, Angela E. Ford, of West Orange; grandparents, Paul Cooksey and his wife, Janet, of Lumberton; Pamala and Allan Adkins, of Bandera; and Buddy Bourne, of Beaumont; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and other family members.
