Lynda Grace Conway Davis, 69, of Kountze, died Thursday, May 6, 2021. She was born on August 13, 1951, in Houston, to Leona Guillory Conway and Jim Conway.

Lynda grew up in Houston alongside her sister Betty. Eventually her family moved to Thicket where Lynda attended West Hardin High and where she later met Jerry of Kountze, her husband of fifty-one years. Together they had three children.

Lynda subbed at the Kountze High School while her kids attended as well as coached cheerleading for a few years. She enjoyed being around the students and they loved her.

She began working for Hardin County Indigent Healthcare in 1987 and was promoted to Director of Indigent Healthcare in 2000 until her recent passing. Lynda had thought about retiring for the past few years but felt her work wasn't done. There were many people needing help, plus she loved the ladies in her office and friends/coworkers all around the courthouse.

Lynda was not only a loving mother, wife, Mimi, and daughter, but she was also an animal and nature lover. She and Jerry enjoyed taking the kids camping on the weekends and would still go camping up until recently. She enjoyed traveling. Family road trips were always fun as were the many trips to the Hill Country with her and Jerry's friends.

Any place you wanted to go, Lynda was ready with a smile on her face. She very much loved attending church on Sundays, if she wasn't camping. Her faith was strong and is what helped her get through very rough waters. From her own battle with cancer, which she won, to the passing of her parents and loved ones who gained their wings before her. Lynda enjoyed cooking and baking, especially the recipes she learned from her Cajun mother, Leona and her maw maw Mac. A few times a year, she and Jerry would drive over to Louisiana to pick up ponce, boudin, sausage, and tasso. Delicious!

Lynda enjoyed singing and learned to play the organ and the dulcimer. She and Jerry used to meet up with friends to sing and play music. Then grandkids came along, and everyone became too busy to meet up. But they still stayed in touch through the years.

Lynda was a joyful and loving person with a positive outlook on life. She was the rock and foundation of our family and will be missed by everyone who knew her. May she rest in beautiful peace with everyone who went before her.

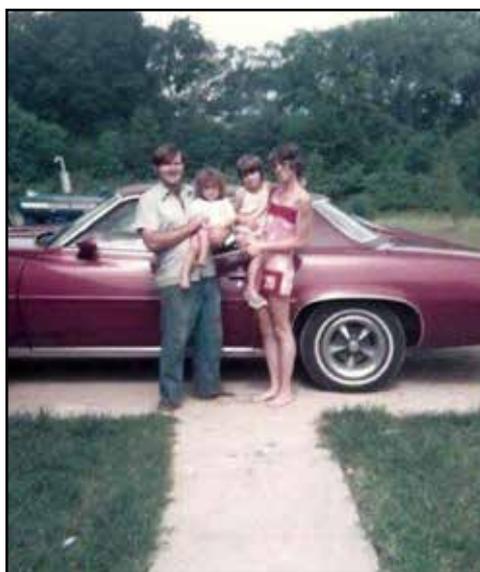

Survivors include her husband, Jerry Davis; children, Joni Davis Parker and her husband, John, of Wildwood; Brigitte Davis Radcliff and her husband, Chris, of Beaumont; and Adam Davis of Kountze; grandchildren, Anastasia Radcliff and Brandon Radcliff, both of Beaumont; and sibling, Betty Carol Nerren and her husband, Butch, of Rye. She is preceded in death by her parents.
