

Clarke C. Dubose, Jr.

August 31, 1949 - March 24, 2021

Celebrating the Life of Clarke C. Dubose, Jr.
Sunday, March 28, 2021 2:00 p.m.
Broussard's Chapel
Nederland, Texas
Reverend Michael Halliburton

“Take My Hand, Precious Lord”
by Elvis Presley

Opening Comments

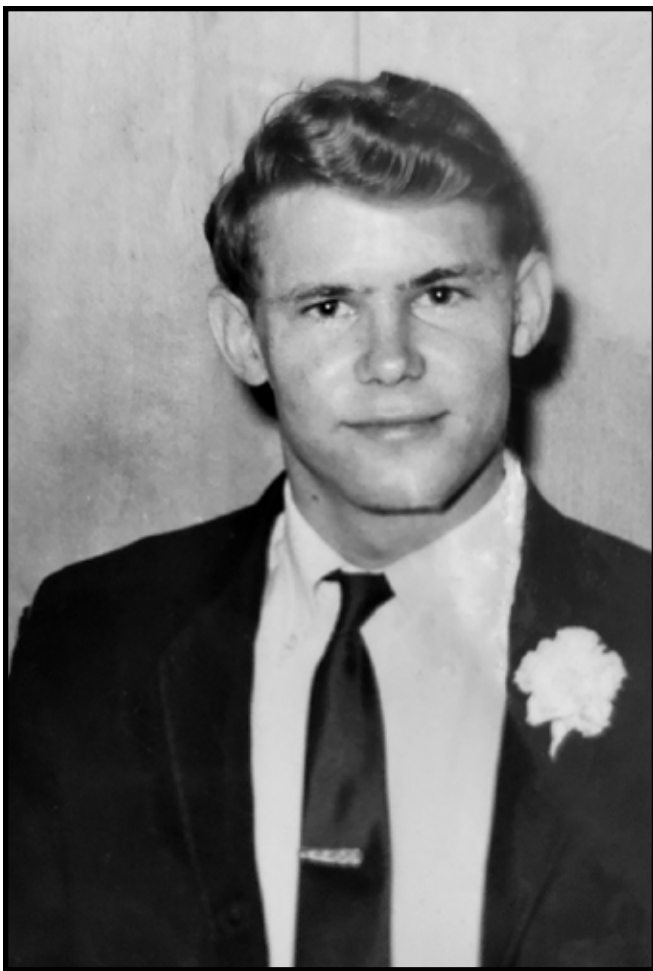

“Better Off There”
by The Browns

Reflections

“Angel”
by Sarah McLachlan

Message

“Go Rest High on That Mountain”
by Vince Gill

Clarke Clyde Dubose, Jr., 71, of Nederland, died Wednesday, March 24, 2021. He was born August 31, 1949, in Port Arthur, to Vicie Audrey Bailey and Clarke Clyde Dubose, Sr. Clarke was a United States veteran and an operator for Valero.

Clarke is survived by his wife, Linda Dubose, of Nederland; daughters, Vicki Dubose, of Houston and Angie Dubose, of Richmond, Virginia; stepdaughter, Melissa Grogan, of Groves; granddaughters, Megan Crowson and Hannah Gargus; siblings, Judy, Donna, Becky, and Brenda; and uncle, Johnny Dubose, of Bridge City.

He is preceded in death by his parents; sister, Evelyn Ann; and grandson, Jaryd Arledge.

CLARKE DuBOSE, JR.

KOREA — Army Pvt. Clarke C. Dubose, Jr., whose parents live at 519 South 13th, st. Nederland, Tex., was recently assigned as an armorer with the 2d Infantry division in Korea. The private's wife, E. Jean, lives at 406 South 13th, Nederland.

Committal
Broussard's Crematorium
Beaumont, Texas

Broussard's
Established 1889

Please sign Mr. Dubose's guest book and share your memories at www.broussards1889.com