Ouida "Grammie" Glover, 83, of Silsbee, died Saturday, June 5, 2021. She was born on January 16, 1938, in Neshoba County, Mississippi, to Nettie Pope Duran and Edward G. Duran.

Grammie was a faithful, loving woman. She loved God and family with all her heart. She quietly, but powerfully, worshipped.

Survivors include her husband of sixty-four years, Ray Glover; children, Monteia Davidson and her husband, Dan, of Bandera; Jannetta Nelson and her husband, Billy, of Orange; David Glover and his wife, Yolanda, of Silsbee; and Geina Copeland and her husband, Matt, of Sebastopol, Mississippi; grandchildren, Tracy Burch and her husband, Joseph, of Orange; Lauren Morales and her husband, Caleb, of Union, Mississippi; Lexi Copeland of Sebastopol, Mississippi; Dillan Glover and his fiancée, Tiffany Looper; and Bailee Glover, all of Silsbee; and Lyndon Copeland of Sebastopol, Mississippi; great-grandchildren, Jay Jay Burch, Levi Burch, and Darrell Burch; brothers, Charles Duran; Byron Duran and his wife, Laura; and Gerald Duran and his wife, Jan; and sister, Nancy Sistrunk, all of Jackson, Mississippi. She is preceded in death by her mother, Nettie Pope Duran; father, Edward G. Duran; and stepmother, Rachael Hillman Duran.

“Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands. She is like the merchants’ ships; she bringeth her food from afar. She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens. She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard. She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms. She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night. She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff. She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet. She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple. Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land. She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant. Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.”

-Proverbs 31:10-28

If Roses Grow in Heaven

By Dolores M. Garcia

If roses grow in heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my Mother's arms
and tell her they're from me.

Tell her I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.

Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.

Grammie, we love you always!

Love your daughters,
Monteia, Janetta, Geina, and Yolanda
