

Lorene A. Green

May 24, 1924 - June 19, 2021

Lorene A. Green, 97, of Hamshire, died Saturday, June 19, 2021. She was born on May 24, 1924, in Nederland, to Agnes Johnson Gallier and Zead Curtis Gallier.

Lorene retired from Hamshire-Fannett Independent School District after decades of service in many capacities. She worked in a doctor's office as a Medical Assistant for many years and also cooked for the Pipkin Ranch for fifteen years. Lorene will be remembered for her yardwork and cooking, especially her famous jelly and dirty rice. She will also be remembered by her family as a loving wife, Mother, and Granny.

Survivors include her daughters Anna LeBlanc of Stowell and Joyce Hart of Clarksville, Tennessee; sons Rodney Green and his wife, Rosalind, of Prairieville, Louisiana and Dale Green of Hamshire; grandchildren Tammie, Terri, Kellie, Devina, Clay, Heather, and Amy; numerous great-grandchildren, and niece and nephews Darlene Dugas and Earl and Hal Smith.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband of over thirty years, Fred Green; son, Kellie Green; daughter, Donna Chisum; sisters, Muriel Smith and Shirley Johnson; and brothers, Ted Gallier and Zead Curtis Gallier.

*Each family has a pillar
A rock on which they stand
A source of inspiration
Or a gentle guiding hand
Ours was in my mother
The one we held so dear
Now we have to wonder
Where do we go from here
The bond that held us together
Is gone forevermore
Her time on earth has ended
Like the closing of a door
She had a heart of gold
Sworn by all who knew her
A mother, grandmother, or a friend
There was none ever truer
She saw hard times
Like we have never known
All that she accomplished
She did it on her own
If our wealth were measured
By the people that we touch
Her life was filled with riches
So few have known as much
Where do we go from here
How do we ease this empty feeling
What are we to do
When a heart of gold stops beating*
