Sandy was the heart of her family. Her children and grandchildren meant the world to her. She was so proud of each of them and their accomplishments. She was loving and warm, never hesitating to say “I love you” or “I miss you.” Sandy was

She loved closing her eyes and listening to a favorite song on the radio. She also enjoyed watching her favorite bands perform live. She was an excellent dancer. She could often be found dancing to live Cajun, zydeco, and country music. Sandy also discovered she loved relaxing on the beach at Seaside, Florida. She loved watching the sunset at the Savannah Pavilion. On the shore, she found a sense of peace and visited there often. She surrounded herself with all things “beachy” to remember those Seaside memories.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving; go into his courts with praise. Give thanks to him and bless his name. For the Lord is good. His unfailing love continues forever, and his faithfulness continues to each generation.

Psalm 100: 4-5

One night I dreamed a dream.

As I was walking along the beach with my Lord.

Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life.

For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand,

One belonging to me and one to my Lord.

After the last scene of my life flashed before me,

I looked back at the footprints in the sand.

I noticed that at many times along the path of my life,

especially at the very lowest and saddest times,

there was only one set of footprints.

This really troubled me, so I asked the Lord about it.

“Lord, you said once I decided to follow you,

You’d walk with me all the way.

But I noticed that during the saddest and most troublesome times of my life,

there was only one set of footprints.

I don’t understand why, when I needed You the most,

You would leave me.”

He whispered,

“My precious child, I love you and will never leave you

Never, ever, during your trials and testings.

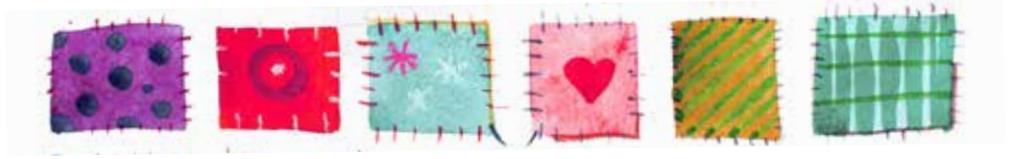

When you saw only one set of footprints,

It was then that I carried you.”
