Roy Myers, 60, of Winnie, died Wednesday, May 12, 2021. He was born on December 6, 1960, in Roanoke, Louisiana, to Luthy Mary Lantz and Lawrence Myers.

Roy Myers was a simple and loving man that loved his family and friends more than anything in the world. He was a hard worker who enjoyed traveling the country with most of his brothers working in cooling towers. There was always a brotherly rivalry of who worked harder and better at doing their jobs, which lead to many stories of fun and excitement. He was definitely the life of any party, always having that smile to lighten up anyone's day. He loved bass fishing, Cajun music and dancing, and was an excellent handyman. And at the end of a long, hard day, he enjoyed a nice, strong cup of coffee and his scratch off tickets. His imprint on life will be remembered as the son, brother, cousin, uncle, and friends who was always there to lend a helping hand and to make everyone smile with no effort. He will be truly missed.

Survivors include his mother, Luthy Myers; brother, Eldon Lee Myers, Sr. of Winnie; sisters, Stephanie Trahan and her husband, John, of Bronson and Ellen Fountain of Kirbyville; brothers, Lonnie Myers of Hillister; Michael Myers and his wife, Lesa, of Winnie; and Bruce Myers of Midland; nineteen nieces and nephews; and numerous great nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father, Lawrence Myers; brothers, Danny Lee Myers and Lambert Ray Myers, Sr.; and brother-in-law, James Edward Fountain.

Roy

What could I say to make the pain go away.
What could I do to help see you thru.
Only pray for the comfort God can give you.

So take Gods hand and let him show you those pearly gates
where Heaven awaits.
You are there, see the light, walk thru and you will see your family is there waiting for you.

Go Roy its ok, thank you for all the great memories each of us will have to keep in our hearts, each and every day.

The angels are singing, the sun is so bright, look Roy it's Heaven what a glorious sight.

Your home Roy, see there's your shade tree, your fishing pole, right over there by the lake. Yes God is great.
He has showered you with love and grace, and chosen your perfect eternal resting place.

Love, Amy

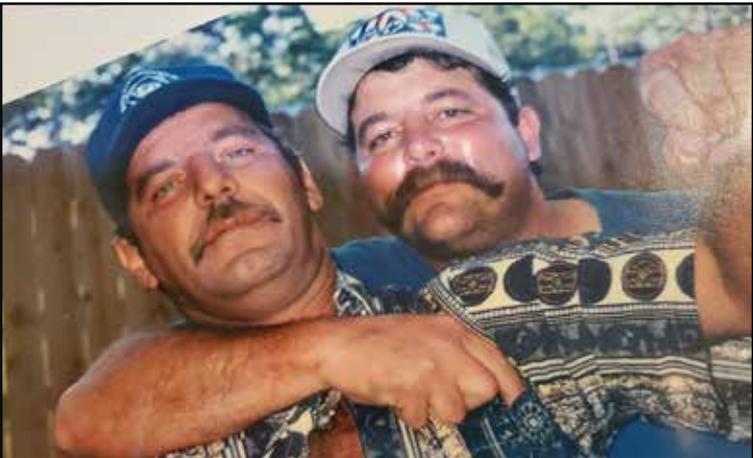

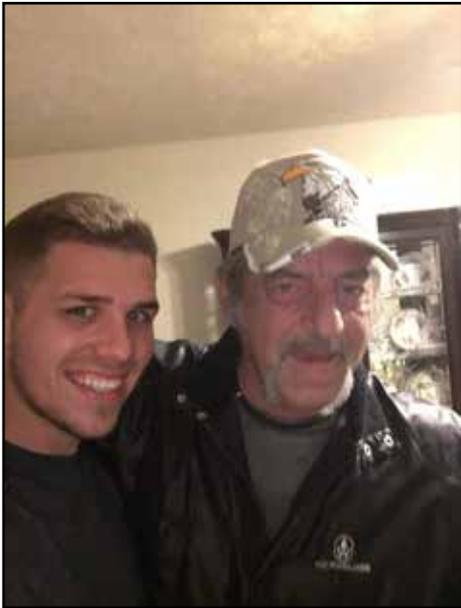

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me,
please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name,
and took me by the hand;
The angel said my place was ready,
In Heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But when I walked through Heaven's Gates,
I felt so much at home,
for God looked down, smiled at me,
And told me "Welcome Home."
So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart.
